

A full-length portrait of Sir William Hamilton, an 18th-century man, seated in a classical interior. He is dressed in a dark red velvet coat with a fur collar, a white cravat, and dark breeches. He holds a large, open book or map in his lap, looking upwards and to the right. The background features a large window with a view of a landscape, a classical column, and a dark, ornate table with a vase. The overall style is neoclassical.

Sir William Hamilton Envoy Extraordinary:

Sir William Hamilton Brian Fothergill, 2005 Sir William Hamilton is perhaps best remembered for those lives adjacent to his own British Ambassador to the court of Naples at the time of the rise of Napoleon he could count European monarchs amongst his friends His claim to a place in history however comes from his involvement in the most notorious love triangle of the time that which existed between him his second wife Emma and the most celebrated of English naval heroes Admiral Lord Nelson Brian Fothergill's history places Sir William Hamilton at the centre of a stage for which he has long been suited Hamilton carved a refined niche in Neopolitan society and this story details his passage through nobler times from the scandal of William Beckford to the earthquakes at Calabria and on to the curious final chapter of his life where he was overshadowed by his second wife and her lover Brian Fothergill was commended for this work by the Royal Society of Literature being awarded the W H Heinman Award for non fiction of outstanding literary merit Sir William Hamilton
