Post-war Jewish Women's Writing in French Lucille Cairns, 2017-12-02 How have French Jewish women reacted to the great traumas of the last century the Holocaust North African decolonization and the resulting migration of African Jews to France the Arab Israeli crisis and the aftermath of 9 11 Cairns's major new volume identifies the themes of books by French Jewish women from 1945 to the present day gauging to what extent they are dominated by informed by or relatively indifferent to these threatening events Thirty authors in particular serve as representatives of a great and greatly diverse pool divided not only as Ashkenazim or Sephardim but by origins scattered across Algeria Egypt Germany Hungary Morocco Poland Romania Russia Tunisia and Turkey Theirs is a transnational doubly diasporic and thus particularly complex paradigm in which feminism loyalty to family culture and to the traditions of Judaism often exists in tension with French Republican models of assimilation non differentiation and gender blindness Lucille Cairns is Professor of French Literature at the University of Durham

Vietnam and the Colonial Condition of French Literature Leslie Barnes, 2014-12-01 Vietnam and the Colonial Condition of French Literature explores an aspect of modern French literature that has been consistently overlooked in literary histories the relationship between the colonies their cultures languages and people and formal shifts in French literary production Starting from the premise that neither cultural identity nor cultural production can be pure or homogenous Leslie Barnes initiates a new discourse on the French literary canon by examining the work of three iconic French writers with personal connections to Vietnam Andr Malraux Marguerite Duras and Linda L In a thorough investigation of the authors linguistic metaphysical and textual experiences of colonialism Barnes articulates a new way of reading French literature not as an inward looking homogenous monolingual tradition but rather as a tradition of intersecting and interdependent peoples cultures and experiences One of the few books to focus on Vietnam's position within francophone literary scholarship Barnes challenges traditional concepts of French cultural identity and offers a new perspective on canonicity and the division between French and francophone literature

Fables of the Novel Warren F. Motte, 2003 Readers of the contemporary novel in France are witnessing the most astonishing reinvigoration of narrative prose since the New Novel of the 1950s In the last few years bold innovative and richly compelling novels have been written by a variety of young writers These texts question traditional strategies of character plot theme and message and they demand new strategies of reading too Choosing ten novels published during the 1990s as examples of that trend Warren Motte traces the resurgence of the novel in France He argues that each of the novels under consideration here quite apart from what other stories it tells presents a fable of the novel that deals with the genre s possibilities limitations and future as a cultural form
