Rhetorics Haunting the National Mall Roger C. Aden,2018-09-15 Rhetorics Haunting the National Mall Displaced and Ephemeral Public Memories vividly illustrates that a nation s history is more complicated than the simple binary of remembered forgotten Some parts of history while not formally recognized within a commemorative landscape haunt those landscapes by virtue of their ephemeral or displaced presence Rather than being discretely contained within a formal sites these memories remain public by lingering along the edges and within the crevices of commemorative landscapes By integrating theories of haunting place and public memory this collection demonstrates that the National Mall often referred to as the nation s front yard might better be understood as the nation s attic because it hides those issues we do not want to address but cannot dismiss The neatly ordered installations and landscaping of the National Mall if one looks and listens closely reveal the messiness of US history From the ephemeral memories of protests on the Mall to the displaced but persistent presences of inequality each chapter in this book examines the ways in which contemporary public life in the US is haunted by incomplete efforts to close the book on the past Black World/Negro Digest ,1962-05 Founded in 1943 Negro Digest later Black World was the publication that launched Johnson Publishing During the most turbulent years of the civil rights movement Negro Digest Black World served as a critical vehicle for political thought for supporters of the movement

Writers of the Black Chicago Renaissance Steven C. Tracy,2011-11-01 Writers of the Black Chicago Renaissance comprehensively explores the contours and content of the Black Chicago Renaissance a creative movement that emerged from the crucible of rigid segregation in Chicago's Black Belt from the 1930s through the 1960s. Heavily influenced by the Harlem Renaissance and the Chicago Renaissance of white writers, its participants were invested in political activism and social change as much as literature, art, and aesthetics. The revolutionary writing of this era produced some of the first great accolades for African American literature and set up much of the important writing that came to fruition in the Black Arts Movement. The volume covers a vast collection of subjects, including many important writers such as Richard Wright, Gwendolyn Brooks, and Lorraine Hansberry, as well as cultural products such as black newspapers, music, and theater. The book includes individual entries by experts on each subject, a discography, and a filmography that highlight important writers, musicians, films, and cultural presentations, and an introduction that relates the Harlem Renaissance, the White Chicago Renaissance, the Black Chicago Renaissance, and the Black Arts Movement. Contributors are Robert Butler, Robert H. Cataliotti, Maryemma Graham, James C. Hall, James L. Hill, Michael Hill, Lorraine King, Lawrence Jackson, Angelene Jamison, Hall Keith, Leonard Lisbeth, Lipari, Bill V. Mullen, Patrick Naick, William R.
