The Gestalt Art Experience:

The Gestalt Art Experience Janie Rhyne, 1973 The Gestalt Art Experience Janie Rhyne, 1973 The Gestalt Art Experience Jacqueline Anne Buckley, 1989 The Modern History of Art Therapy in the United States Maxine Borowsky Junge, 2010

Over the years art therapy pioneers have contributed towards the informal and formal beginnings of this fascinating and innovative profession. The development of the art therapy profession concerns a special breed of person who discovered the profound and unique power of the integration of art and psychology and had the energy and drive to create the new field. Important movements and milestones are highlighted including the dilemmas and crucial events of art therapy's evolution. Unique features include the early days and influence in the United States at the time of the formation of the art therapy profession. Florence Cane and the Walden School, Margaret Naumberg's theory of psychodynamic art therapy, Edith Kramer's theory of art as therapy, the Menninger Foundation art therapy in Ohio and the Buckeye Art Therapy Association, Elinor Ulman and the first art therapy journal, Hanna Yaxa Kwiatkowska and the invention of family art therapy, a brief history of art therapy in Great Britain and Canada, the 1960s and their influence on the development of art therapy, Myra Levick and the establishment of the American Art Therapy Association, the pioneer art therapists and their qualities and patterns, the definition and expansion of art therapy, the development of master's level art therapy, art therapists of color and influence, the history of humanistic psychology and art therapy, the expressive arts therapy, Jungian art therapy and the art therapists that began in the 1970s. Chronologies and study questions for discussion appear at the end of most chapters. Finally, the book presents issues essential to the field today such as art therapy registration, certification and licensing, art therapy assessment procedures, research, multiculturalism and art therapy as an international phenomenon. This text will be of primary interest to art therapists and students, to art educators and historians and to those interested in how mental health disciplines evolve.

Foundations of Art Therapy Meera Rastogi, Rachel P. Feldwisch, Michelle Pate, Joseph Scarce, 2022-06-30

Foundations of Art Therapy: Theory and Applications is an essential and comprehensive introduction to the field of art therapy that blends relevant psychological and neuroscience research, theories and concepts and infuses cultural diversity throughout each chapter. The text includes full color photos, informative charts and case examples and is divided into four parts beginning with the basics of art therapy knowledge and concluding with professional practices in art therapy. The fundamentals of art therapy section includes coverage of art therapy founders, art materials, multicultural perspectives, intersections with neuroscience and research methods. An overview and in-depth explorations of different theoretical approaches to the practice of art therapy are covered in the second part of the book. A bio-psycho-social approach integrates current research on art therapy with specific populations: children, mental health, older adults and trauma. The book concludes with art therapy professional practices in group, concepts, community-based art therapy and developing a career in the field. Each chapter contains chapter objectives, practical applications, ethical considerations, reflection questions, experiential exercises and a list of terms The unique practical and interdisciplinary approach of this text provides a solid base for understanding the field of art therapy and is well suited for use in undergraduate art therapy courses This book will appeal to those who want an introduction to the field s theories research and practice and those seeking a comprehensive understanding on the foundations of art therapy Full color photos informative charts and case examples Definitions key details and clear explanations of major concepts Evidence based research and attention to diversity equity inclusion and justice in each chapter Reader experiential activities and reflection questions to enhance deeper levels of processing Instructor resources that include chapter outlines experiential classroom activities and lecture enhancements multiple choice and short answer questions for each chapter
