Scott, Myles A. Pocta, 2012-07-27 It was the fall of 1940 and Americans turned to college football for relief from the turbulent world around them The Depression still had its grip on the nation and across the Atlantic the Battle of Britain raged As war crept closer every day the nation's first peacetime draft called Americans to the defense of the country While the great Tom Harmon of Michigan set new standards on the gridiron on other fields black stars struggled for the right to play At Stanford coaching genius Clark Shaughnessy reinvented the game and in the process engineered the greatest turnaround in the history of college football But the team everybody was talking about was Cornell Fueled by the most powerful offense in the country the Big Red dominated the national rankings until on a snowy field at Dartmouth they eked out a win with a touchdown on the last play of the game or did they When it came to light that the touchdown had been scored on a grievous error by the officials Cornell undefeated and in the race for the national championship faced a wrenching decision The 1940 season was one of the most exciting on record and one that taught America about the values that really matter Teams of the AFC Jim Gigliotti, 2011 Check out the hottest NFL players of the season Highlights the hottest teams and players from the past NFL season Flip through the pages and look at the best of the AFC then flip the book over and look at the best of the NFC Privacy in the Commercial World United States.
