The Girl From Addis:

The Girl in the Pandemic Claudia Mitchell, Ann Smith, 2023-04-14 As seen in previous pandemics girls and young women are particularly vulnerable as social issues such as homelessness mental healthcare access to education and child labor are often exacerbated The Girl in the Pandemic considers what academics community activists and those working in local national and global NGOs are learning about the lives of girls and young women during pandemics Drawing from a range of responses during the pandemic including first person narratives community ethnographies and participatory action research this collection offers a picture of how the COVID 19 pandemic played out in eight different countries The Girl from Addis Ted Allbeury, 1984 Adolescent Girls' Migration in The Global South Katarzyna Grabska, Marina de Regt, Nicoletta Del Franco, 2018-09-26 This book provides a nuanced complex comparative analysis of adolescent girls migration and mobility in the Global South The stories and the narratives of migrant girls collected in Bangladesh Ethiopia and Sudan guide the readers in drawing the contours of their lives on the move a complex fluid scenario of choices constraints setbacks risks aspirations and experiences in which internal or international migration plays a pivotal role The main argument of the book is that migration of adolescent girls intersects with other important transitions in their lives such as those related to education work marriage and childbearing and that this affects their transition into adulthood in various ways While migration is sometimes negative it can also offer girls new and better opportunities with positive implications for their future lives The book explores also how concepts of adolescence and adulthood for girls are being transformed in the context of migration Child Protection in Development Michael Bourdillon, William Myers, 2014-06-11 Every day millions of children in developing countries face adversities of many kinds yet there is a shortage of sound evidence concerning their plight and an urgent need to identify the most appropriate and effective policy responses from among the multiple approaches that exist This collection of journal papers aims to engage with researchers and debates in the field so as to understand better some of the numerous risks confronted by children in developing countries It highlights the complexity of protecting children in various forms of adversity challenges conventional wisdom about what protects children demonstrates why it is essential to consult with children to protect them successfully and suggests that successful protection must be based on strong empirical understanding of the situation and the perspectives of children and communities involved The contributors are all experienced researchers and practitioners who have worked for many years with children in developing countries The book offers suggestions for reform of current child protection policies based on empirical findings around a range of child protection concerns including children s work independent migration family separation early marriage and military occupation Together the contributions provide a body of knowledge important to humanitarian and development policy and practice This book was published as a special issue of Development in Practice The Making of Elite Women Tanja Müller, 2021-11-29 This book is a thorough study about the upcoming of elite women in Eritrea encompassing the time of the armed struggle for liberation as well as its aftermath up to the tenth anniversary of Eritrean independence in 2001 and beyond It is a multi disciplinary study combining a comprehensive analysis of Eritrean history society and political developments with extensive case study research into the lives of different groups of elite women Modernisation processes created by the Eritrean revolution fostered an environment in which women are regarded as equal and encouraged to occupy positions of leadership At the same time the revolution s hegemonic ideology does not envisage women opting out of its version of modernity thus new avenues open up only for those who subscribe to the revolution s narrative of progress Furthermore it is argued that while the Eritrean revolution played a decisive role in opening up possibilities for women s emancipation a failure to implement democratic structures of governance puts the revolution s societal achievements at risk its legacy might well rest with possibilities of personal liberation in individual lives The Power of Continuity Eva Poluha,2004 In this gracefully written book Dr Eva Poluha wrestles with important issues of Ethiopian political culture and cultural continuity and transmission in general Drawing upon her years of experience in the country as well as the data from this school ethnography she has produced a stimulating and thought provoking work for those interested in problems of cross cultural education as well as in Ethiopia Herbert S Lewis Professor Emeritus Department of Anthropology University of Wisconsin Madison Children play a vital role as a source of information on politics but have been neglected as political actors in research contexts In this study children are used as a window to an Ethiopian society where hierarchical relations persist despite the numerous political and administrative transformations of the past century With data gathered through participant observation the book examines how young Addis Abeba school children learn to adapt to and reproduce relations of superordination or subordination based on gender age strength and social position The children s experiences are viewed in the historical context of state citizen relations where hierarchy and obsession with control have been and continue to be dominant The discussion focuses on the power of continuity in the reproduction of cultural patterns and political behaviour and on how change towards more egalitarian relations could come about
