The God Of Christians Theology And Liberation Series:

The God of Christians Ronaldo Muñoz,1990 The Trinitarian Dharma Pabitra Mani Bhandari,2025-02-25 As the gospel continues to spread to the farthest corners of the world the Christian faith encounters an array of diverse cultures religions philosophies and belief systems This encounter serves as a catalyst for transformation as Christianity both influences and is influenced by the new frontiers it reaches The book at hand endeavors to explore this dynamic process particularly focusing on the Trinitarian theology as a potent force for transformation Moreover it seeks to uncover the resonance between Christian concepts and the rich tapestry of Dharma thereby enhancing our understanding of the Trinity In essence this book serves as a pivotal example of how abstract theological ideas can be made relevant and meaningful in the context of a multicultural and multireligious world It embodies an approach to Christian theology that is both interreligious and interdisciplinary emanating from a global Christian perspective that embraces diversity and dialogue Retrieving the Human Jose Comblin,2003-08-26 All roads in the church lead to humankind Pope John Paul II wrote in his first encyclical But what is it to be a human being And what vision does Christian theology offer for being and becoming human In the past theology has taken the role of the dominant ideology in a society claiming to present a complete vision of humankind and its place in creation Now Comblin argues we need to reestablish the primacy of the biblical message and tradition being lived today The Bible espouses a non idealized non individualized but realistic and communitarian view of what it means to be human This can be called the humanity of the two thirds world those whose humanity does not figure in the ideology of the privileged few As Comblin writes The privileged forget their bodies Those who have never been truly hungry do not understand that a human being is first and foremost a being who needs to eat Today it is the poor who live through their bodies and theology makes an option for the poor A new model of theology is emerging from Christian communities growing up all over the globe And yet it is an old model too that finds and takes much from the communities of the first Christians Retrieving the Human explores this new yet old vision examining questions of the new person and personhood soul and body humankind in relation to space and time the person in relation to science technology and work humanity before God It is among the poor particularly in the base communities that Comblin looks for models of being truly human today An Introduction to Christian Theology Richard J. Plantinga,Thomas R. Thompson,Matthew D. Lundberg,2022-11-03 A journey in Christian theology through biblical historical and thematic perspectives with special attention to the context of today s world Minjung and Process Hiheon Kim,2009 This book reconstructs the legacy of Korean minjung theology by reformulating its essential ideas in a dialogue with process thought In a minimal sense this study is a theological reinterpretation of the doctrine of the minjung messiah an idea which historically suffered from a misunderstanding that minjung theology created a messianic confusion while replacing christology and soteriology by a radical anthropology This erroneous conception occurred when the idea was placed within the philosophically dualistic framework of traditional doctrines in which the work of minjung is totally separated from the work of Christ In order to avoid such a dualistic understanding the author critically adopts process panentheism and makes minjung ideas more communicable and more comprehensive in current theological religious and philosophical debates Beyond defending the idea of the minjung messiah he also argues for an inclusive minjung hermeneutics that promotes the fundamental insight of minjung theology in philosophical clarity Through minjung hermeneutics minjung theology expands its practical concern and overcomes the theoretical nihilism in postmodern studies

Beyond the Academy David Thang Moe, 2024-10-11 The term public theology was introduced by Martin E Marty in a 1974 article Since then scholarly discussions on public theology have become more popular in academic circles This book however is about the invitation for moving beyond the academy It provides two reasons for doing so First an overtly academic public theology is in crisis today Although public theology may be flourishing in the academy its relevance for real life is limited Second there is the ecclesial flourishing among grassroots Christian communities across Asia who witness to their lived faith in public and hidden life Their voices are largely unheard due to the gaps between the academy and the church This volume argues that we should consider their voices as key sources for developing a relevant lived Asian public theology The author makes the case for reimagining the paradigm shifts in lived Asian public theology of religions and for bridging the unhappy gaps between the academic and grassroots voices

The Way of the Kenotic Christ Samuel J. Youngs, 2019-10-25 Despite his vast importance to twentieth century theology Jürgen Moltmann's Christology has yet to receive the same level of in depth exploration as other topics in his thought Samuel Youngs addresses this lacuna providing the first exhaustive analysis of Moltmann's doctrine of Christ including its key developments and controversial elements Youngs argues that Moltmann's doctrine of Christ is best understood as a unique variation of kenotic Christology This vision of Christ encapsulates not only a series of vibrant ethical and eschatological points but also serves Moltmann's overarching theological goal of empowering a church that lives and ministers under the cross Part I highlights key facets of Moltmann's theological method before unfolding the range of diverse themes that characterize his Christology Part II explores Moltmann's use of the kenosis hymn of Philippians 2 before interrogating Moltmann's relationship to christological tradition Part III engages in an original systematization of Moltmann's Christology centered on the theme of manifold relational kenosis

Christian Matthew Bowman, 2018-04-02 Religious diversity is a defining feature of the United States But more remarkable than the range of faiths is the diversity of political visions embedded in them Matthew Bowman delves into the ongoing struggle over the potent word Christian not merely to settle theological disputes but to discover its centrality to American politics

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume One Jeff B. Pool, 2009-01-01 This book constitutes the first volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God s Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Divine Vulnerability and Creation This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God Through this approach this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation
