The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute,1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr Victorian Vogue Dianne F. Sadoff,2010 Ranging from cinematic images of Jane Austen s estates to Oscar Wilde s drawing rooms Dianne F Sadoff looks at popular heritage films often featuring Hollywood stars that have been adapted from nineteenth century novels Victorian Vogue argues that heritage films perform different cultural functions at key historical moments in the twentieth century According to Sadoff they are characterized by a double historical consciousness one that is as attentive to the concerns of the time of production as to those of the Victorian period If James Whale s Frankenstein and Tod Browning s Dracula exploited post Depression fear in the 1930s the horror films of the 1950s used the genre to explore homosexual panic 1970s movies elaborated the sexuality only hinted at in the thirties and films of the 1990s indulged the pleasures of consumption Taking a broad view of the relationships among film literature and current events Sadoff contrasts films not merely with their nineteenth century source novels but with crucial historical moments in the twentieth century showing their cultural use in interpreting the present not just the past The Pride of the Yankees Richard Sandomir,2017-06-13 I CONSIDER MYSELF THE LUCKIEST MAN ON THE FACE OF THE EARTH On July 4 1939 baseball great Lou Gehrig delivered what has been called baseball s Gettysburg Address at Yankee Stadium and gave a speech that included the phrase that would become legendary He died two years later and his fiery widow Eleanor wanted nothing more than to keep his memory alive With her forceful will she and the irascible producer Samuel Goldwyn quickly agreed to make a film based on Gehrig s life The Pride of the Yankees Goldwyn didn t understand or care about baseball For him this film was the emotional story of a quiet modest hero who married a spirited woman who was the love of his life and after a storied career gave a short speech that transformed his legacy With the world at war and soldiers dying on foreign soil it was the kind of movie America needed Using original scripts letters memos and other rare documents Richard Sandomir tells the behind the scenes story of how a classic was born There was the so called Scarlett O Hara like search to find the actor to play Gehrig the stunning revelations Elanor made to the scriptwriter Paul Gallico about her life with Lou the intensive training Cooper underwent to learn how to catch throw and hit a baseball for the first time and the story of two now legendary Hollywood actors in Gary Cooper and Teresa Wright whose nuanced performances endowed the Gehrigs with upstanding dignity and cemented the baseball icon s legend Sandomir writes with great insight and aplomb painting a fascinating portrait of a bygone Hollywood era a mourning widow with a dream and the shadow a legend cast on one of the greatest sports films of all time
