The House Of Childhood European Women Writers Ser:

The House of Childhood Marie Luise Kaschnitz, 1990 The Man in the Pulpit Ruth Rehmann, 1997-01-01 The Man in the Pulpit is a courageous autobiographical novel by the distinguished and widely praised German novelist Ruth Rehmann Its narrator like Rehmann herself is a middle class citizen of West Germany in the 1970s more than a quarter century after the horrors of the Nazi years Prodded by questions from her children the narrator begins to reexamine her childhood and the father a stern imposing Lutheran minister who dominated it Her memories lead her to a fresh painful understanding of how her father who died in 1940 tragically reconciled himself to the moral and political outrages of National Socialism The father's moral compromises stand in large measure for the failures of Germany as a whole His critical views of the Weimar Republic his apolitical stance in the face of Nazi aggression the unsatisfactory guidance he offers his family and parishioners all contribute to the portrait of a man who fails to find sufficient moral understanding and resolve in the face of the Nazi nightmare As her story unfolds Rehmann provides uncommon insights into how the terrible alliance in Germany between those who were honorable and those who were dishonorable could have occurred From the opening memory of father and daughter walking together singing and joking to the final deathbed scene there is no episode no emotion that does not vibrate with restrained intensity The relationship between daughter and father is both distant and intimate simple and complex happy and angry and it always takes place in a larger historical context Forever Valley Marie Redonnet, 1994-01-01 A sixteen year old illiterate woman cares for the elderly rector of a tumbledown church in a mountain hamlet but when the town hall across from the church is converted into a dance hall the narrator is recruited for some of the hall's finer clientele Women Writing on the French Riviera Rosemary Lancaster, 2020-06-15 Destination for artists and convalescents playground of the rich site of foreign allure the French Riviera has long attracted visitors to its shores Ranging through the late nineteenth century the Belle Epoque the roaring twenties and the emancipatory post war years Rosemary Lancaster highlights the contributions of nine remarkable women to the cultural identity of the Riviera in its seminal rise to fame Embracing an array of genres she gives new focus to feminine writings never previously brought together nor as richly critically explored Fiction memoir diary letters even cookbooks and choreographies provide compelling evidence of the innovativeness of women who seized the challenges and opportunities of their travels in a century of radical social and artistic change Women & Aging Helen Rippier Wheeler, 1997 Guide with more than two thousand bibliographic entries and cross references It includes journal articles book chapters essays and doctoral dissertations as well as complete books Apology for the Woman Writing and Other Works Marie le Jars de Gournay, 2007-11-01 During her lifetime the gifted writer Marie le Jars de Gournay 1565-1645 was celebrated as one of the seventy most famous women of all time in Jean de la Forge's Circle of Learned Women 1663 The adopted daughter of Montaigne as well as his editor Gournay was a major literary force and a pioneering feminist voice during a tumultuous period in France This volume presents translations of four

Woman's Who's who of America John W. Leonard, 1914 Concert Else Lasker-Sch_ler, 1994-01-01 Concert was one of the last books published by a Jew in Germany before Hitler came to power The work is autobiographical a collection of essays and vignettes that both entertain and engage the reader at a deeper level Like Robert Schumann's piano suites each in itself a perfect concert Else Lasker Sch_ler's Concert contains pieces that vary greatly in theme mood length and complexity yet they are unified by the medium and by the distinct and lyrical personality of the artist Lasker Sch_ler is able to transform and transcend the everyday scenery and events that are her points of departure She makes magical an unmagical corner of Germany discerns the miraculous in the neglected and ignored and finds wisdom and comfort in prayer and cosmic perspective Lasker Sch_ler was attuned to the world and in some ways uncannily prophetic It may come as a surprise to some readers that Concert published in German in 1932 contains a warning about the climatic dangers of interfering with the merry green leaf people who give us ozone and the breath of life With her respect for the natural environment and her emphasis on spiritual development rather than the materialistic Lasker Sch_ler's voice remains relevant to our own times A recent German edition of her complete works has proven immensely popular Prior to the Third Reich Lasker Sch_ler had a well established reputation in her native Germany as a poet dramatist and prose writer as well as for her work in the visual arts and she received the Kleist Prize for Literature As a Jew though she was increasingly threatened by people wearing swastikas and was forced to flee the country in 1933 never to return She died in exile in Palestine in 1945 This is the first English translation of any of Lasker Sch_ler's prose a challenging task because she includes sections in dialect poems numerous neologisms witty alterations of German sayings and structural emulations with phonetic echoes of famous German art songs
