The Genocidal Mentality Nazi Holocaust Nuclear Threat:

The Genocidal Mentality Robert J. Lifton, 1991-11-18 Examines the cast of mind that created and maintains the nuclear threat and suggests an alternative direction The Problems of Genocide A. Dirk Moses, 2021-02-04 Genocide is not only a problem of mass death but also of how as a relatively new idea and law it organizes and distorts thinking about civilian destruction Taking the normative perspective of civilian immunity from military attack A Dirk Moses argues that the implicit hierarchy of international criminal law atop which sits genocide as the crime of crimes blinds us to other types of humanly caused civilian death like bombing cities and the collateral damage of missile and drone strikes Talk of genocide then can function ideologically to detract from systematic violence against civilians perpetrated by governments of all types The Problems of Genocide contends that this violence is the consequence of permanent security imperatives the striving of states and armed groups seeking to found states to make themselves invulnerable to threats The American Experience in World War II: The atomic bomb in history and memory Walter L. Hixson, 2003 World War II changed the face of the United States catapulting the country out of economic depression political isolation and social conservatism Ultimately the war was a major formative factor in the creation of modern America This unique twelve volume set provides comprehensive coverage of this transformation in its domestic policies diplomatic relations and military strategies as well as the changing cultural and social arenas The collection presents the history of the creation of a super power prior to during and after the war analyzing all major phases of the U S involvement making it a one stop resource that will be essential for all libraries supporting a history curriculum This volume is available on its own or as part of the twelve volume set The American Experience in World War II For a complete list of the volume titles in this set see the listing for The American Experience in World War II ISBN 0 415 94028 1 Genocide and the Politics of Memory Herbert Hirsch, 2000-11-09 More than sixty million people have been victims of genocide in the twentieth century alone including recent casualties in Bosnia and Rwanda Herbert Hirsch studies repetitions of large scale human violence in order to ascertain why people in every historical epoch seem so willing to kill each other He argues that the primal passions unleashed in the cause of genocide are tied to the manipulation of memory for political purposes According to Hirsch leaders often invoke or create memories of real or fictitious past injustices to motivate their followers to kill for political gain or other reasons Generations pass on their particular versions of events which then become history If we understand how cultural memory is created Hirsch says we may then begin to understand how and why episodes of mass murder occur and will be able to act to prevent them In order to revise the politics of memory Hirsch proposes essential reforms in both the modern political state and in systems of education Regions of Risk Kenneth Hewitt, 2014-09-19 An introduction to hazards human vulnerability and disaster paying particular attention to the more severe or novel risks and disaster that affect the general public The book is split into two parts the first of which gives an overview of the field of risk and disaster in terms of three perspectives hazards perspective vulnerability perspective and the active perspective The second part illustrates and develops these ideas in relation to some of the more severe dangers and disasters of the twentieth century for example earthquake risk cities at risk and the civil disasters of war

Pioneers of Genocide Studies (Clt) Samuel Totten, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2002 New areas of research are not the result of a snap of the finger They are carved out of the marrow of human existence The study of genocide well illustrates this raw fact From the early efforts that emerged in the struggle against Nazism and over the past half century the field has now reached a point where there at least five genocide centers across the globe and well over one hundred Holocaust centers This work emerged out of an earlier effort at an oral history project one that would enable a new generation of scholars researchers and policy makers to assess the major foci of the field efforts to develop ways and means to intervene and prevent future genocides and review the successes and failures of the field The editors of Pioneers of Genocide Studies emphasize that contributors should approach the questions of greatest relevance in a personal way crafting a statement that reveals ones individual voice persuasions literary style scholarly perspectives and relevant details of ones life The book succeeds admirably in the above aims and in so doing epitomizes scholarly autobiographical writing at its best The book also includes the most important works by each author on the issue of genocide As a result the collective portrait enhances the usefulness of the volume for those new to the field Among the contributors are experts in the Armenian Bosnian Cambodian genocides as well as the Holocaust against the Jewish people The contributors are Rouben Adalian M Cherif Bassiouni Israel W Charney Vahakn Dadrian Helen Fein Barbara Harff David Hawk Herbert Hirsch Irving Louis Horowitz Richard Hovannisian Henry Huttenbach Leo Kuper Raphael Lemkin James E Mace Eric Markusen Robert Melson R J Rummel Roger W Smith Gregory H Stanton Ervin Staub Colin Tatz Yves Ternan and the co editors The work has been five years in the making and represents a high watermark in the reflections and self reflections on the comparative study of genocide Samuel Totten is professor of curriculum and instruction in the College of Education and Health Professions at the University of Arkansas Fayetteville He is the editor of First Person Accounts of Genocidal Acts and Century of Genocide Eyewitness Accounts and Critical Views and book review editor for the Journal of Genocide Research Steven Leonard Jacobs is associate professor and Aaron Aronov Chair of Judaic Studies in the department of religious studies at the University of Alabama Tuscaloosa He is the author of Shirot Bialik A New and Annotated Translation of Chaim Nachman Bialiks Epic Poems Raphael Lemkins Thoughts on Nazi Genocide Not Guilty and Contemporary Christian and Contemporary Jewish Religious Responses to the Shoah

Genocide and Human Rights J. Roth, 2005-07-27 Genocide is evil or nothing could be It raises a host of questions about humanity rights justice and reality which are key areas of concern for philosophy Strangely however philosophers have tended to ignore genocide Even more problematic philosophy and philosophers bear more responsibility for genocide than they have usually admitted In Genocide and Human Rights A Philosophical Guide an international group of twenty five contemporary philosophers work to correct those deficiencies by showing how philosophy can and should respond to genocide particularly in ways that defend human rights The Fundamentalist Mindset Charles B. Strozier, David M. Terman, James W. Jones, Katherine A. Boyd, 2010-04-19 This penetrating book sheds light on the psychology of fundamentalism with a particular focus on those who become extremists and fanatics What accounts for the violence that emerges among some fundamentalist groups The contributors to this book identify several factors a radical dualism in which all aspects of life are bluntly categorized as either good or evil a destructive inclination to interpret authoritative texts laws and teachings in the most literal of terms an extreme and totalized conversion experience paranoid thinking and an apocalyptic world view After examining each of these concepts in detail and showing the ways in which they lead to violence among widely disparate groups these engrossing essays explore such areas as fundamentalism in the American experience and among jihadists and they illuminate aspects of the same psychology that contributed to such historical crises as the French Revolution the Nazi movement and post Partition Hindu religious practice Lenses on Blindness Sharon Packer, M.D., 2023-03-02 Blindness or vision loss is a major medical concern that has also drawn the attention of artists writers musicians mythologists filmmakers religions philosophers and others Covering everything from pop culture to high culture this text is an illuminating anthology of essays examining various representations of blindness Comprehensive in scope this collection of essays analyzes depictions and explorations of blindness in many pieces of media Essays explore blindness in horror films science fiction literature high art superhero fiction Jewish and indigenous traditions music and more This book aims to show how a world of darkness can hold so much light The Scourge of Genocide Adam Jones, 2013-06-26 The Scourge of Genocide collects essays reviews and reportage on the subjects of genocide and crimes against humanity by Adam Jones recently selected as one of Fifty Key Thinkers on the Holocaust and Genocide The volume includes a number of previously unpublished essays and explores a range of debates and approaches in comparative genocide studies such as Genocide pedagogy and visual representation Gender and gendercide The role of media and communications in genocide The historiography of genocide studies Subaltern genocide or genocides by the oppressed Strategies of genocide prevention and intervention Covering a broad spectrum of theoretical perspectives as well as case studies from the former Yugoslavia Rwanda Guatemala Afghanistan Iraq and Israel Palestine this book is essential reading for all scholars and students of genocide studies political violence and international relations
