Justice Provocateur Gray Cavender, Nancy C. Jurik, 2012-08-15 Justice Provocateur focuses on Prime Suspect a popular British television film series starring Oscar and Emmy award winning actress Helen Mirren as fictional London policewoman Jane Tennison Gray Cavender and Nancy C Jurik examine the media constructions of justice gender and police work in the show exploring its progressive treatment of contemporary social problems in which women are central protagonists They argue that the show acts as a vehicle for progressive moral fiction fiction that gives voice to victim experiences locates those experiences within a larger social context transcends traditional legal definitions of justice for victims and offers insights into ways that individuals might challenge oppressive social and organizational arrangements Although Prime Suspect is often seen as a uniquely progressive feminist inspired example within the typically more conservative male dominated crime genre Cavender and Jurik also address the complexity of the films gender politics Consistent with some significant criticisms of the films they identify key moments in the series when Tennison's character appears to move from a successful woman who has it all to a post feminist stereotype of a lonely aging career woman with no strong family or friendship ties Shrewdly interpreting the show as an illustration of the tensions and contradictions of women's experiences and their various relations to power Justice Provocateur provides a framework for interrogating the meanings and implications of justice gender and social transformation both on and off the screen

Straight From The Heart

Poems By Wayne Hampton, 2008-10 From the heart of Martha Marica Coleman Stenson The poems I compose are not to bring me fortune and fame They are written for the sole purpose of bringing glory to my Savior's Holy Righteous name When thoughts and feelings for GOD ALMIGHTY need to be expressed inspirational poems by Marica say them best For the composition of my poems no credit to me is owed I give thanks to GOD for the talent to me HE bestowed For me expressions of inspiration through poetry is no art My poems are unspoken words of love GOD placed in my heart My love for GOD is what inspires me to write It is not due to my intellectual insight Without ALMIGHTY GOD it would be impossible to compose them Every word I write is due to being blessed by HIM My love for JEHOVAH GOD just continues to grow causing inspirational expressions from my pen to flow To bring glory to GOD I continue to strive From the depths of my heart my poems derive For my to compose poetry GOD is the engender All of my allegiance to JEHOVAH GOD ALMIGHTY I surrender I pray that this book of inspirationals my GOD given gift will bring to the sick afflicted and downhearted a spiritual lift The Essential Writings of Christian Mysticism Bernard McGinn, 2006-12-12 This clear and comprehensive anthology culled from the vast corpus of Christian mystical literature by the renowned theologian and historian Bernard McGinn presents nearly one hundred selections from the writings of Origen of Alexandria in the third century to the work of twentieth century mystics such as Thomas Merton. Uniquely organized by subject rather than by author, The Essential Writings of Christian Mysticism explores how human life is transformed through the search for direct contact with God. Part one examines the preparation for encountering God through biblical interpretation and prayer; the second part focuses on the mystics' actual encounters with God; and part three addresses the implications of the mystical life, showing how mystics have been received over time and how they practice their faith through private contemplation and public actions. In addition to his illuminating Introduction, Bernard McGinn provides accessible headnotes for each section as well as numerous biographical sketches and a selected bibliography. Praise for The Essential Writings of Christian Mysticism: No one is better equipped than Bernard McGinn to provide a thorough and balanced guide to this vast literature. This is an anthology which deserves to be read not only by those who study Christian history and theology but by believers who long to deepen their own lives of prayer and service. Anglican Theological Review. Bernard McGinn, a preeminent historian and interpreter of the Christian mystical tradition, has edited this fine collection of mystical writings, organizing them thematically. McGinn offers helpful introductions to each thematic section, author, and entry as well as a brief critical bibliography on mysticism. Published in the Modern Library Classic series, this is a great value. Christian Century. No one is better equipped than Professor McGinn to provide a thorough and balanced guide to this vast literature. A first class selection by a first class scholar. Rowan Williams, Archbishop of Canterbury. This accessible anthology by the scholarly world's leading historian of the Western Christian mystical tradition easily outstrips all others in its comprehensiveness, the aptness of its selection of texts, and in the intelligent manner of its organization. Denys Turner. Horace Tracy Pitkin, Professor of Historical Theology, Yale Divinity School. An immensely rich anthology assembled and introduced by our foremost student of mysticism. Both the scholar and the disciple will find God's plenty here. Barbara Newman, Professor of English Religion and Classics, John Evans, Professor of Latin, Northwestern University. An unusually clear and insightful exposition of major texts selected by one of the greatest scholars in the field of Christian mysticism, based on his vast erudition and uniquely sensitive interpretation. Like his other books, this one too is destined to become a classic. Professor Moshe Idel, Hebrew University, Jerusalem.
