The Glass Industry Of The Weald:

The Glass Industry of the Weald G. H. Kenyon, 1967 The Glass Industry, 1920 The Glass Industry of the Weald, Etc George Hugh KENYON, 1967 The Scottish Glass Industry 1610-1750 Jill Turnbull, 2001 Glassmaking was one of the earliest manufacturing industries to be set up in Scotland but one about which little information has been published This monograph aims to rectify that situation by documenting the early days of Scottish glass production from the granting of the first patent in 1610 up to the mid 18th century English Medieval Industries John Blair, Nigel Ramsay, 1991-01-01 This work is intended as a modern successor to L F Salzman's English Industries in the Middle Ages 1913 The approach to each industry is by material discussing its acquisition working and sale as a finished product Only industries that resulted in the production of consumer goods and where substantial numbers of artefacts survive from the Middle Ages are dealt with fishing and brewing are therefore omitted the text is illustrated by pictures of surviving objects and contemporary representations of medieval work The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts Gordon Campbell, 2006-11-09 The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts covers thousands of years of decorative arts production throughout western and non western culture With over 1 000 entries as well as hundreds drawn from the 34 volume Dictionary of Art this topical collection is a valuable resource for those interested in the history practice and mechanics of the decorative arts Accompanied by almost 100 color and more than 500 black and white illustrations the 1 290 pages of this title include hundreds of entries on artists and craftsmen the qualities and historic uses of materials as well as concise definitions on art forms and style Explore the works of Alvar Aalto Charles and Ray Eames and the Wiener Werkstatte or delve into the history of Navajo blankets and wing chairs in thousands of entries on artists craftsmen designers workshops and decorative art forms The Agrarian History of England and Wales: Volume 2, 1042-1350 H. E. Hallam, H. P. R. Finberg, Joan Thirsk, 1967 This 1988 volume examines the agrarian history of England and Wales from Edward the Confessor to the outbreak of the Black Death in 1348

Economic Expansion and Social Change: Industry, trade, and government C. G. A. Clay, 1984 Historical understanding of the dynamics of economic and social change in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries has been transformed in the last twenty or thirty years by an enormous volume of original research A fascinating picture has emerged of an economy and society in turmoil under the influence of population growth inflation the commercialisation of agriculture the growth of a huge capital city the emergence of distinct forms of manufacturing and changes in the international economic context Traditional forms of production traditional social structures and traditional values all came under increasingly insistent attack from the forces of change leading to radical economic and social readjustments In this book Christopher Clay draws on this flourishing research to provide a lucidly written analysis of the economy and society of England in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries logically organised on a thematic rather than a chronological basis The Big Smoke (Routledge Revivals) Peter Brimblecombe, 2012-07-26 First published in 1987 Peter Brimblecombe's book provides an engaging historical account of air pollution in London offering a fascinating insight into the development of air pollution controls against a changing social and economic background He examines domestic and industrial pollution and their effects on fashions furnishings buildings and human health The book ends with an intriguing analysis of the dangers arising from contemporary pollutants and a glimpse of what the future may hold for London Before the Industrial Revolution Carlo M. Cipolla, 2004-08-02 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
