Butler,2023-04-28 The quality of the reprint is nearly perfect with a good selection of papers for the three sequential parts of the book the texts the drawings and the black and white photographs Text and drawings are on matte heavyweight pages while the photos are on glossy paper The inks make everything read well in particular the drawing reproductions are exquisite Archidose Edwin Lutyens one of the most famous architectural names of the 20th century died in 1944 As a memorial three large volumes of his drawings and photographs were commissioned from the thousands found in his office and were published by Country Life All three volumes will be republished in 2023 The first volume contains his own plans elevations and copious details of the finest examples of his domestic buildings on which his huge reputation principally rests The book embodies the quintessence of the man and his work the variety of style and design seen in the houses brings together in one volume the many strands of Lutyens's fertile mind Two further volumes will include his corporate and public buildings The genius of Lutyens is now universally recognized In the work featured in this book we can now see not just the professionalism of a great architect but also the loving care with which he set down the most minute detail with the result that this is one of the few books in existence that can be used to provide working drawings      Houses and Gardens by Sir Edwin Lutyens Sir Edwin Landseer Lutyens,Lawrence Weaver,1913      Sir Edwin Lutyens Clive Aslet,2024-07-02 Sir Edwin Lutyens 1869 1944 was one of the great architects of the twentieth century His Edwardian country houses surrounded by rhapsodic gardens beguiled clients with their romance and wit After 1918 the war memorials that he created symbolized a grieving nation's sense of loss In the new capital of the British Raj New Delhi the Viceroy's House or Rashtrapati Bhavan had a footprint bigger than Versailles His unfinished Liverpool Cathedral would have rivaled St Peter's in Rome Intensely shy Lutyens hid his personality behind puns and jokes and yet he could be called part mystic a reference to an inner profundity Rich in stories this entertaining and stylish short biography is a major new study incorporating fresh research which shows this most charismatic of architects in a new light      Houses and Gardens by Sir Edwin Lutyens, R.A. Lutyens,1925      The Architecture of Sir Edwin Lutyens A. S. G. Butler,1950      The Country House Revealed Dan Cruickshank,2012-07-31

Spanning the architectural history of the country house from the disarming Elizabethan charm of South Wraxall the classical rigour of Kinross in Scotland the majesty and ingenuity of Hawksmoor's Easton Neston the Palladian sweep of Wentworth Woodhouse with over 300 rooms and frontage of 600 feet the imperial exuberance of Clandeboye through to the ebullient vitality of Lutyens Marshcourt the stories of these houses tell the story of our nation All are the buildings of the greatest architectural interest each with a fascinating human story to tell and all remain private homes that are closed to the public But their owners have opened their doors and allowed Dan Cruickshank to roam the corridors and rummage in the cellars as he teases out the story of each house who built them the generations who lived in them and the families who lost them Along the way he has uncovered tales of excess and profligacy tragedy comedy power and ambition And as these intriguing narratives take shape Dan shows how the story of each house is inseparable from the social and economic history of Britain Each one is built as a wave of economic development crests or crumbles Each one's architecture and design is thus expressive of the aims strengths and frailties of those who built them Together they plot the psychological economic and social route map of our country's ruling class in a rich new telling of our island story Sir Edwin L. Lutyens, 1939

British metropolis by showing both the geographical variations and its different cultural manifestations Barczewski offers a rare scholarly analysis of the history of country houses that goes beyond an architectural or biographical study and recognises their importance as the physical embodiments of imperial wealth and reflectors of imperial cultural influences In so doing she restores them to their true place of centrality in British culture over the last three centuries and provides fresh insights into the role of the Empire in the British metropolis      Country-houses Arthur Stanley George Butler,1984
