Sir Roger De Coverley James George Frazer,2015-07-19 Excerpt from Sir Roger De Coverley And Other Literary Pieces The pieces collected in this little volume have been written at various times as interludes in a life devoted to graver studies Some of them have been published before others now see the light for the first time Whether it was worth while to draw these from the obscurity of the author s desk and to gather those from the books and journals where they lay dispersed is a question to be decided by the reader to whom I submit the waifs and strays in the hope that they may help him to while away an idle half hour snatched from the duties or pleasures of ordinary life Most of the pieces were composed in the classic groves of Cambridge and the rest in the hardly less classic courts of the Temple haunted by the shades of Johnson of Goldsmith of Cowper and a crowd of other English worthies whose memories the world will not willingly let die It will be more than enough for me if these trifles should be deemed not wholly unworthy of the scenes in which they were written and to which they owe any measure of inspiration they may possess About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book
