The Charism of Karuna - Life Story of Sister Karuna Mary Braganza Pearl Angela Drego, 2011

Narrating Illness: Prospects and Constraints Joanna Davidson, Yomna Saber, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Telling the story of illness emerges from a landscape of pain grief and loss but its therapeutic value is indubitable This volume grapples with the potentials and limitations of such narratives as diverse cultural perceptions and realities are granted the voice to probe into those stories from literary and textual material as well as empirical ethnographic historical and personal bases Some of the chapters draw upon the capacity of storytelling to heal bodies and souls whereas others provide an important corrective to this overwhelmingly optimistic portrayal by focusing on the limits of storytelling and narrative to address physical and psychic trauma Despite the different approaches what ties these chapters together is a more focused textual and contextual analysis of the intersection between forms of storytelling and sharing the experience of illness as studied and witnessed and sometimes even lived by the authors of the volume usher in a new era for their land before it is too late for all of them An American Story Wilmer Valderrama, 2024-09-17

The remarkable true story of a young immigrant from Venezuela who had a dream to change the world a talent for entertaining and a determined spirit to build a new life taking as many as possible with him on the journey An American Story is the stirring memoir by actor producer and activist Wilmer Valderrama delving into his upbringing in Venezuela where he was raised by two hard working parents as they navigated their family through a rapidly changing country and the rise of Hugo Chavez With the economy crashing around them and their livelihood disappearing the family decides to flee the country Suddenly the young boy who had loved riding his horse and dreaming of being Zorro from his favorite black and white tv show had to grow up quickly journeying as a teenager from a tiny little pueblo in Venezuela to the big city of Los Angeles After being cast in a school theatre production Valderrama knew he had found his calling and began thinking of ways to help support his struggling family He would attempt the impossible find work in Hollywood as an unproven Latino actor Following countless auditions and frequent criticisms of his accent he created the personality that would eventually land him the role as Fez on the hit series That 70s Show which catapulted him to stardom Over the coming years he would create the smash show Yo Mama voice the lead character in Disney's Encanto and so much more culminating in his joining the cast of the hit show NCIS in 2016 It was through service to others and his first USO trip however where Valderrama found his expanded calling entertaining and encouraging U S troops around the world He has since traveled with the USO a multitude of times having participated in almost 50 tours domestically and internationally and was recently named USO Global Ambassador Through his work Valderrama hopes to demonstrate his love and gratitude for the country that changed his life An American Story weaves Valderrama's personal stories with those of the remarkable people he's met along his philanthropic journey This isn't just Valderrama's story though It's a view of America through an immigrant's eyes in both its stunning unmatched wonders and all its native challenges It is the profound and gripping story of someone who found the way and is now inviting as many as possible to join him on the adventure Emotional Structure, Creating the Story

Beneath the Plot Peter Dunne, 2007 The leap from concept to final draft is great and the task is filled with hard work and horrors It is here that most writers struggle to get the plot right at the expense of the story's real power The result is a script that is logical in every way yet unmoving Emotional Structure by Emmy and Peabody Award winning producer writer and teacher Peter Dunne is for these times when the plot fits nicely into place like pieces in a puzzle yet an elemental terribly important something remains missing The missing piece won't be found by adding action you can't stir the soul with a car chase And the problem won't be helped by a change of location the only location that matters is deep in your protagonist The solution is to pay constant attention to the inseparable nature of plot development and emotional development When you create any scene whether it's a police pursuit on the interstate or a heart to heart in the kitchen the emotional reasoning behind the scene has to be evident When you develop the emotional current that sustains the action you create a scene with heart and soul and you and your viewers are going to feel the passion A Companion to the Works of Robert Musil
