Don't Slam the Screen Door! Janette

Navickas Dehner, 2021-09-21 Don't Slam The Screen Door is a bedtime storybook inspired from a time before kids were lost to technology I wanted to write about adventures from my own memorable childhood beyond my own back door The hope is to motivate boys and girls each night one chapter and one adventure at a time to explore their surroundings with their young minds and imaginations Equally important was to model a reminder to dads and moms that it does not take much to stimulate a child's creativeness A little schooling never hurt anyone is the philosophy behind the twin's names which were intentionally chosen Selected as a strategically play of words by creating a tongue twister of sorts to get kids to articulate and identify slight word differences while reading I chuckle to think of my own grandchildren correcting my pronunciation when I am reading to them Also with our own names being similar in sound and spelling it was a life experience my twin sister and I personally identified with Foremost I wanted this to be a Christian based book weaving the simplicity of knowing and having a relationship with the Lord Placing bible scripture at the end of each chapter in faith the verse becomes a tangible teaching tool pointing to Our Father's Word In hope of initiating inquisitive minds to simply open discussion of wanting to know of the scripture's source the Holy Bible Don't Slam The Screen Door was truly inspired out of love for Our Father family and my sisters Juleen Jeanette and Joette God Bless Janette Navickas Dehner

Soundies and the Changing Image of Black Americans on Screen Susan Delson, 2021-12-07 In the 1940s folks at bars and restaurants would gather around a Panoram movie machine to watch three minute films called Soundies precursors to today s music videos This history was all but forgotten until the digital era brought Soundies to phones and computer screens including a YouTube clip starring a 102 year old Harlem dancer watching her younger self perform in Soundies In Soundies and the Changing Image of Black Americans on Screen One Dime at a Time Susan Delson takes a deeper look at these fascinating films by focusing on the role of Black performers in this little known genre She highlights the women performers like Dorothy Dandridge who helped shape Soundies while offering an intimate look at icons of the age such as Duke Ellington and Nat King Cole Using previously unknown archival materials including letters corporate memos and courtroom testimony to trace the precarious path of Soundies Delson presents an incisive pop culture snapshot of race relations during and just after World War II Perfect for readers interested in film American history the World War II era and Black entertainment history Soundies and the Changing Image of Black Americans on Screen and its companion video website susandelson.com bring the important contributions of these Black artists into the spotlight once again Behind the Screen Brynn W. Shiovitz, 2023 How and why was outdated racial content and specifically blackface minstrelsy not only permitted but in fact allowed to thrive during the 1930s and 1940s despite the rigid motion picture censorship laws which were enforced during this time Introducing a new theory of covert minstrelsy this book illuminates Hollywood's practice of capitalizing on the Africanist aesthetic at the expense of Black lived experience Through close examination of the musicals made during this period this book shows how Hollywood utilized a series of covert guises or subterfuges complicated and further masked by a film's narrative framing and novel technology to distract both censors and audiences from seeing the ways in which they were being fed a nineteenth century White narrative of Blackness Drawing on the annals of Hollywood's most popular and its extremely rare films Behind the Screen uncovers a half century of blackface application by delicately removing the individual layers of disguise through close analyses of films which paint tap dance swing and other predominantly Africanist forms in a negative light This book goes beneath the image of recognizable White performers including Al Jolson Eddie Cantor Fred Astaire and Eleanor Powell exploring the high cost of their onscreen representational politics The book also recuperates the stories of several of the Black artists whose labor was abused during the choreographic and filming process Some of the many newly documented stories include those of The Three Chocolateers The Three Eddies The Three Gobs The Peters Sisters Jeni Le Gon and Cora La Redd In stripping away the various disguises involved during Hollywood's Golden Age Behind the Screen recovers the visibility of Black artists whose names Hollywood omitted from the credits and whose identities America has written out of the national narrative Mind the Screen Jaap Kooijman, Patricia Pisters, Wanda Strauven, 2008 Mind the Screen pays tribute to the work of the pioneering European film scholar Thomas Elsaesser author of several volumes on media studies and cinema culture Covering a full scope of issues arising from the author's work from melodrama and mediated memory to avant garde practices media archaeology and the audiovisual archive this collection elaborates and expands on Elsaesser's original ideas along the topical lines of cinephilia the historical imaginary the contemporary European cinematic experience YouTube and images of terrorism and double occupancy among other topics Contributions from well known artists and scholars such as Mieke Bal and Warren Buckland explore a range of media concepts and provide a mirror for the multi faceted types of screens active in Elsaesser's work including the television set video installation the digital interface the mobile phone display and of course the hallowed silver screen of our contemporary film culture Great Britons of Stage and Screen Barbara Roisman Cooper, 2015-10-01 Although there are encyclopedias and biographical dictionaries of contemporary British film and theatre actors most lack the intimacy of face to face interviews Typically drawn from secondary sources collections of interviews often repeat tired anecdotes about an actor's film or stage roles with very little nuance or fresh insights Great Britons of Stage and Screen In Conversation features interviews with some of the leading actors of the last fifty years and more In this collection Barbara Roisman Cooper presents interviews she personally conducted with more than twenty stars of film television and theatre. Held in intimate surroundings including the actors' private homes and theatre dressing rooms between performances, these interviews provide readers with a rounded understanding of the creative process and the dedication required to develop a performance. Including many well-known Oscar, Tony, Olivier, and BAFTA winners, each interview is preceded by a short introduction and followed by the performer's most significant credits both on the stage and screen. The actors and actresses who shared their stories in this volume include Dame Eileen Atkins, Isla Blair, Simon Callow, Dame Joan Collins, Peggy Cummins, Sinéad Cusack, Samantha Eggar, Stephen Fry, Julian Glover, Stephen Greif, Jeremy Irons, Sir Derek Jacobi, Felicity Kendal, Sir Ben Kingsley, Dame Angela Lansbury, Sir John Mills, Alfred Molina, Lynn Redgrave, Jean Simmons, David Suchet, Richard Todd, Michael York. Designed to serve as a resource for those studying or writing about the worlds of theatre and film in general and the art and craft of acting specifically, Great Britons of Stage and Screen will also appeal to the many fans of the artists who have entertained audiences for decades. China on Screen Christopher J. Berry, Mary Ann Farquhar, 2006-04-04 In China on Screen Chris Berry and Mary Farquhar, leaders in the field of Chinese film studies, explore more than one hundred years of Chinese cinema and nation. Providing new perspectives on key movements, themes, and filmmakers, Berry and Farquhar analyze the films of a variety of directors and actors, including Chen Kaige, Zhang Yimou, Hou Hsiao Hsien, Bruce Lee, Jackie Chan, Maggie Cheung, Gong Li, Wong Kar wai, and Ang Lee. They argue for the abandonment of national cinema as an analytic tool and propose cinema and the national as a more productive framework. With this approach, they show how movies from China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, and the Chinese diaspora construct and contest different ideas of Chinese nation as empire, republic, or ethnicity, and complicated by gender, class, style, transnationalism, and more. Among the issues and themes covered are the tension between operatic and realist modes, male and female star images, transnational production and circulation of Chinese films, the image of the good foreigner, all related to different ways of imagining nation. Comprehensive and provocative, China on Screen is a crucial work of film analysis.
