Impossible Images Shelley Hornstein, Laura Levitt, Laurence J. Silberstein, 2003-10 Impossible Images brings together a distinguished group of contributors including artists photographers cultural critics and historians to analyze the ways in which the Holocaust has been represented in and through paintings architecture photographs museums and monuments Exploring frequently neglected aspects of contemporary art after the Holocaust the volume demonstrates how visual culture informs Jewish memory and makes clear that art matters in contemporary Jewish studies Accepting that knowledge is culturally constructed Impossible Images makes explicit the ways in which context matters It shows how the places where an artist works shape what is produced in what ways the space in which a work of art is exhibited and how it is named influences what is seen or not seen and how calling attention to certain details in a visual work such as a gesture a color or an icon can change the meaning assigned to the work as a whole Written accessibly for a general readership and those interested in art and art history the volume also includes 20 color plates from leading artists Alice Lok Cahana Judy Chicago Debbie Teicholz and Mindy Weisel

Art and Death Chris Townsend, 2008-07-29 This highly sensitive and beautifully written book looks closely at the way contemporary Western artists negotiate death both as personal experience and in the wider community Townsend discusses but moves beyond the spectacle of death in work by artists such as Damien Hirst to see how mortality in particular the experience of other people's death brings us face to face with profound ethical and even political issues He looks at personal responses to death in the work of artists as varied as Francis Bacon Tracey Emin and Derek Jarman whose film Blue is discussed here in depth Exploring the last body of work by the the Kentucky based photographer Ralph Eugene Meatyard and Jewish American installation artist Shimon Attie's powerful memorial work for the community of Aberfan Townsend considers death in light of the injunction to love thy neighbour

Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph's appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Searching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies

At Memory's Edge James Edward Young, 2000-01-01 How should Germany commemorate the mass murder of Jews once committed in its name In 1997 James E Young was invited to join a German commission appointed to find an appropriate design for a national memorial in Berlin to the European Jews killed in World War II As the only foreigner and only Jew on the panel Young gained a unique perspective on Germany's fraught efforts to memorialize the Holocaust In this book he tells for the first time the inside story of Germany's national Holocaust memorial and his own role in it In exploring Germany's memorial crisis Young also asks the more general question of how a generation of contemporary artists can remember an event like the Holocaust which it never knew directly Young examines the works of a number of vanguard artists in America and Europe including Art Spiegelman Shimon Attie David Levinthal and Rachel Whiteread all born after the Holocaust but indelibly shaped by its memory as passed down through memoirs film photographs and museums In the context of the moral and aesthetic questions raised by these avant garde projects Young offers fascinating insights into the controversy surrounding Berlin's newly opened Jewish museum designed by Daniel Libeskind as well as Germany's soon to be built national Holocaust memorial designed by Peter Eisenman Illustrated with striking images in color and black and white At Memory's Edge is the first book in any language to chronicle these projects and to show how we remember the Holocaust in the after images of its history

Holocaust Images and Picturing Catastrophe Angi Buettner, 2016-12-05 Holocaust Images and Picturing Catastrophe explores the phenomenon of Holocaust transfer analysing the widespread practice of using the Holocaust and its imagery for the representation and recording of other historical events in various media sites It investigates the use of Holocaust imagery in political and legal discourses in critical thinking and philosophy as well as in popular culture to provide a fresh theorisation of the manner in which the Holocaust comes loose from its historical context and is applied to events and campaigns in the contemporary public sphere Richly illustrated with concrete examples including prominent international animal rights activism the Israeli Palestinian conflict and the genocide in Rwanda this book traces the visual rhetoric of Holocaust imagery and its application to events other than the genocide of Jewish people With its discussion of the wide range of issues arising with this form of Holocaust transfer the generalization of the Holocaust as a metaphor in representations of catastrophe as well as in other cultural locations Holocaust Images and Picturing Catastrophe will appeal to those working in the fields of holocaust studies cultural and visual culture studies sociology and media studies

Memory Effects Dora Apel, 2002 Dora Apel analyzes the ways in which artists born after the Holocaust whom she calls secondary witnesses represent a history they did not experience first hand She demonstrates that contemporary artists confront these atrocities in order to bear witness not to the Holocaust directly but to its memory effects and to the implications of those effects for the present and future Drawing on projects that employ a variety of unorthodox artistic strategies the author provides a unique understanding of contemporary representations of the Holocaust She demonstrates how these artists frame the past within the conditions of the present the subversive use of documentary and the archive the effects of the Jewish genocide on issues of difference and identity and the use of representation as a form of resistance to historical closure

Camerawork, 1999 Yasukuni Shrine Akiko Takenaka, 2015-07-31 This is the first extensive English language study of Yasukuni Shrine as a war memorial It explores the controversial shrine s role in waging war promoting peace honoring the dead and in particular building Japan s modern national identity It traces Yasukuni s history from its conceptualization in the final years of the Tokugawa period and Japan s wars of imperialism to the present Author Akiko Takenaka departs from existing scholarship on Yasukuni by considering various themes important to the study of war and its legacies through a chronological and thematic survey of the shrine emphasizing the spatial practices that took place both at the shrine and at regional sites associated with it over the last 150 years Rather than treat Yasukuni as a single unchanging ideological entity she takes into account the social and political milieu maps out gradual transformations in both its events and rituals and explicates the ideas that the shrine symbolizes Takenaka illuminates the ways the shrine s spaces were used during wartime most notably in her reconstructions based on primary sources of visits by war bereaved military families to the shrine during the Asia Pacific War She also traces important episodes in Yasukuni s postwar history including the filing of lawsuits against the shrine and recent attempts to reinvent it for the twenty first century Through a careful analysis of the shrine s history over one and a half centuries her work views the making and unmaking of a modern militaristic Japan through the lens of Yasukuni Shrine Yasukuni Shrine History Memory and Japan s Unending Postwar is a skilled and innovative examination of modern and contemporary Japan s engagement with the critical issues of war empire and memory It will be of particular interest to readers of Japanese history and culture as well as those who follow current affairs and foreign relations in East Asia Its discussion of spatial practices in the life of monuments and the political use of images media and museum exhibits will find a welcome audience among those engaged in memory visual culture and media studies

Pacific geopolitics The Invisible Web Chris Sherman, Gary Price, 2001 Finding content on the Internet which isn't located through more conventional means such as search engines La Reconstruction en Europe Après la Première Et la Seconde Guerre Mondiale Et Le Rôle de la Conservation Des Monuments Historiques Luc Verpoest, 2011 Living with History focuses on a particular aspect of heritage preservation in the twentieth century destruction and postwar reconstruction in Belgium France Germany Great Britain and The Netherlands This book establishes a status quaestionis for the historiography of wartime and postwar preservation and sets these particular developments in preservation history in the context of the general evolution of architecture and urbanism The authors investigate the specific role of conservationists and heritage institutions and administrations in the overall reconstruction and examine the part played by architects and planners in heritage preservation Executive Power of the European Union Deirdre Curtin, 2009 The picture of Brussels based bureaucrats exercising arbitrary executive powers is one of the favourite images conjured by Eurosceptics across the political spectrum This book offers a richer understanding of the nature of the EU's powers how they relate to national governments and how they are controlled Irregular Migration and Invisible Welfare M. Ambrosini, 2016-04-30 Focusing on care workers for the elderly this book examines the paradoxical position of irregular migrants in European society who are often labelled as illegal residents but who in fact provide much needed essential support to welfare systems

Manufacturing Government Communication on Covid-19 Philippe J. Maarek, 2022-09-10 This book presents a comparative perspective on different government communication strategies to COVID 19 around the globe Scholars from twenty parts of the world specialized in political and government communication analyze initiatives and methods of various governments communicative responses to the pandemic In their contributions to this volume they examine a wide range of distinct attitudes and reactions facing the crisis Today's omnidirectional contact allowed by social media with its load of contradictory rumors and fake news often obliterates the citizens ability to comprehend reality The book frames a broad canvas on how government communication may deal with that and manage similar crises bound to happen as climate changes and war menaces are generating more and more worries about the future of humanity This makes this volume a must read for scholars and students of political communication health policies and communication crisis marketing and communication It will also be of utmost interest for practitioners and policy makers from these fields willing to better understand government communication and its answer to global crises Tourist Attractions World Wide Sophia Curie, 2024-11-17 Tourist Attractions World Wide presents an unprecedented examination of global tourism's intersection with cultural preservation and economic development This comprehensive guide analyzes over 1 000 attractions across seven continents offering a unique blend of practical travel information and scholarly insights into how these sites shape our modern world The book carefully balances historical significance with contemporary relevance exploring everything from ancient archaeological wonders to modern architectural achievements The work progresses logically through four main sections beginning with a foundational understanding of tourist attractions and their evolution from ancient pilgrimages to modern mass tourism. It then delivers detailed regional analyses complete with maps and seasonal guides before delving into the economic impact of tourism on local communities and addressing critical conservation challenges. What sets this book apart is its integration of UNESCO World Heritage data, tourism statistics, and archaeological findings to present a complete picture of global tourism's impact. Through its accessible academic style, the book serves as both a practical reference guide and a scholarly resource, making it invaluable for tourism professionals, cultural preservation specialists, and serious travelers alike. It tackles pressing contemporary issues such as overtourism, cultural authenticity, and sustainable tourism practices while providing practical planning tools and conservation strategies. The incorporation of recent archaeological discoveries and current tourism management approaches ensures its relevance in today's rapidly evolving tourism landscape.

Lifelong Learning and the Roma Minority in the Western Balkans Andrea Óhidy, Katalin R. Forray, 2023-10-25

Lifelong Learning and the Roma Minority in the Western Balkans examines the education situation of Roma in the Western Balkans, providing an overview of the education policies for Roma in 5 EU candidate and potential candidate countries: Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, Montenegro, and Serbia. The EU in the Global Investment Regime Johann Robert Basedow, 2017-11-07. The European Union (EU) has emerged as a key actor in the global investment regime since the 1980s. At the same time, international investment policy and agreements which govern international investment liberalisation, treatment, and protection through investor-to-state dispute settlement have become increasingly contentious in the European public debate. This book provides an accessible introduction to international investment policy and seeks to explain how the EU became an actor in the global investment regime. It offers a detailed analysis of the EU's participation in all major trade and investment negotiations since the 1980s and EU internal competence debates to identify the causes behind the EU's growing role in this policy domain. Building on principal-agent and historical-institutionalist models of incremental institutional change, the book shows that Commission entrepreneurship was instrumental in the emergence of the EU as a key actor in the global investment regime. It refutes business-centred liberal intergovernmental explanations which suggest that business lobbying made the Member States accept the EU's growing role and competence in this domain. The book lends support to supranational and challenges intergovernmental thinking on European integration. This text will be of key interest to scholars, students, and practitioners of European and regional integration, EU foreign relations, EU trade, and international investment law, business lobbying, and more broadly of international political economy. Constructing Accessible Web

Sites Cynthia Waddell, Bob Regan, Shawn Lawton Henry, Michael R. Burks, Jim Thatcher, Mark D. Urban, Paul Bohman, 2003-07-14. Accessibility is about making websites that don't exclude people with visual, aural, or physical disabilities. Through real-world examples, this practical book will teach you how to create or retrofit accessible websites quickly and easily. This book is aimed toward web professionals creating accessible websites or updating existing sites to make them accessible. It's also useful for corporate university and government policy makers involved in the development and maintenance of websites for their institutions. The thorough and practical accessibility techniques outlined in this book come from some of the best accessibility professionals in the business. The techniques are illustrated and accompanied by real world examples from live sites demonstrating that accessibility is not the enemy of great visual design.
