overcrowding in sparsely furnished dormitories Day rooms bleak and uninviting in which sat watery eyed and feeble men their spirit and pride drained away by the hopelessness of the surroundings The many unexpected conditions Professor Townsend found led him to undertake this major enquiry into the question Are communal homes for the aged necessary in our community and if so what form should they take Visits were paid to a random sample of 173 residential institutions and homes and welfare officers matrons and elderly residents were interviewed The general conclusion was that communal homes of the kind that existed in England and Wales did not adequately meet the physical psychological and social needs of the old people living in them and required immediate alternative services and living arrangements This book will be of interest to students of sociology social care public policy and gerontology     Golden Jubilee Edition of The Paradise of Childhood Edward Wiebé,1910     Good Furniture ,1920     Chemistry and Physics in Connection with Agriculture Chemistry,Practical farmer,1849     House & Garden ,1909     In Re Bradtke ,1939     The Saturday Evening Post ,1913     Electric Railway Journal ,1909     Railway Signal ,1903     1897 Sears, Roebuck & Co. Catalogue Sears, Roebuck and Company,2007-09-17 A dazzling trove for students of Americana Time     Culture and Comfort Katherine Grier,2013-09-03 In Culture and Comfort Katherine C Grier shows how the design and furnishings of the mid nineteenth century parlor reflected the self image of the Victorian middle class Parlors provided public facades for formal occasions and represented an attempt to resolve the often opposing ideals of gentility and sincerity to which American culture aspired The book traces the fortunes of the parlor and its upholstery from its early incarnations in palace hotels railroad cars steamships and photographers studios through its mid century heyday when even remote frontier homes could boast suites of red plush sofas and chairs to its slow uneven metamorphosis into the more versatile living room The author argues that even as the home increasingly was seen as a haven from industrialization and commercialization its ties to industry and commerce in the form of more affordable machine made furniture and drapery became stronger By the 1920s the parlor s decline signaled both a blurring of the Victorian distinctions between public and private manners and the transfer of middle class identity from the home to the automobile Describing the deportment a parlor required the activities it sheltered and the marketing and manufacturing breakthroughs that made it available to all Culture and Comfort reveals the full range of cultural messages conveyed by nineteenth century parlor materials
