Political Fiction and the American Self John Whalen-Bridge, 1998 Examining political novels that have achieved or been denied canonical status John Whalen Bridge demonstrates how Herman Melville Jack London Norman Mailer Ralph Ellison Toni Morrison and Margaret Atwood have grappled with the problem of balancing radicalism and art He shows that some books are more political than others that some political novelists are more skillful than others and that readers must allow for basic working distinctions between politics and aesthetics if we are to make useful judgments about which political novels to read and why Whalen Bridge demonstrates with clarity and power that the American political novel should not be ostracized but celebrated as a genre equal or superior to poetic and aesthetic ones Tobin Siebers author of Cold War Criticism and the Politics of Skepticism

What is in a Rim? Arif Dirlik, 1998 In evaluating the idea of Asia Pacific the book shifts our focus from abstract relationships between capital and commodities to the human interactions that have played a formative part in the region's constitution The contributors agree that it is these interactions that constitute the region rather than the physical boundaries of the Pacific
