Love in the Time of Contagion Laura Kipnis, 2022-02-08 In this timely insightful and darkly funny investigation the acclaimed author of Against Love asks what does living in dystopic times do to our ability to love each other and the world COVID 19 has produced new taxonomies of love intimacy and vulnerability Will its cultural afterlife be as lasting as that of HIV which reshaped consciousness about sex and love even after AIDS itself had been beaten back by medical science Will COVID end up making us more relationally conservative as some think HIV did within gay culture Will it send us fleeing into emotional silos or coupled cocoons despite the fact that pre COVID domestic coupledness had been steadily losing fans Just as COVID revealed our nation to itself so did it hold a mirror up to our relationships In Love in the Time of Contagion Laura Kipnis weaves often hilariously her own ambivalent coupled lockdown experiences together with those of others and sets them against a larger backdrop the politics of the virus economic disparities changing gender relations and the ongoing institutional crack ups prompted by MeToo and Black Lives Matter mapping their effects on the everyday routines and occasional solaces of love and sex
