Slow Burn Ellen Dudley, 1997 Unlocking the Poem Ottone M. Riccio, Ellen Beth Siegel, 2009 Compiled from the workshop assignments of Ottone M Riccio a master teacher Unlocking the Poem is a teaching tool a stimulus to individual creative expression and a compendium of outstanding contemporary poetry written from these very assignments all in all a book that deserves a place on every poet's shelf according to the esteemed poet X J Kennedy Unlike many how to write poetry texts Unlocking the Poem teaches by doing Its assignments offer writers new and experienced the chance to try new things to practice their craft and to produce their own original polished poems in the process Unlocking the Poem offers 450 proven assignments more than any other work available based on poetic form subject matter the use of specific words or lines time for writing and so forth The collection contains assignments to elicit autobiographical experience moods and the realms of fact and fantasy These assignments provide stimuli to get the creative process underway with subjects ranging from the everyday to the surreal from people to the natural world from the works of man to history to investigating language Unlocking the Poem is organized so that related material comes together readily findable Turn to a given section villanelles for example or surreal experience or browse until something strikes your interest Assignments are adaptable to beginners and to advanced writers there's plenty in here for every poet Unlocking the Poem belongs in the library of every writing student who wants to be a poet and every poet who wants to write more and better poems A Directory of American Poets and Fiction Writers Poets and Writers, Inc. Staff, 2003 Resource THE DIRECTORY OF AMERICAN POETS FICTION WRITERS is a required resource for any arts or presenting organization looking for literary readers as well as for all publishers seeking to solicit work from the best American writers In addition writers can use the book to find the right writing mentor and connect with other writers When I directed my first arts program the Directory delivered the addresses and phone numbers of writers I loved but couldn't find How many writers and audiences are robbed without the information between these covers Cornelius Eady co founder and co director Cave Canem and author of Brutal Imagination Women Writers of the Provincetown Players Judith E. Barlow, 2009-10-21 Women Writers of the Provincetown Players features thirteen short plays written by women and performed by America's most influential early twentieth century noncommercial theater the Provincetown Players From their beginnings on Cape Cod in 1915 to their disbanding in New York City in 1922 the Players staged nearly one hundred dramas roughly a third of which were composed by women and in the process changed American drama and theater forever Dedicated to fostering new work by Americans the group attracted an impressive collection of talented writers and among its offerings were some of the first modernist plays written in the United States Chosen for both their artistic merit and their cultural importance the plays included here range from naturalistic tragedies to poetic allegories to witty satires and together they provide a valuable look at women's concerns during a period of intense civil rights activity just prior to the granting of female suffrage In addition to works by well known writers like Susan Glaspell

Djuna Barnes and Edna St Vincent Millay the book also includes works by such significant but lesser known figures as Neith Boyce Louise Bryant Rita McCann Wellman and Alice Rostetter as well as critical biographical prefaces to each play and an introduction that explains the importance of these plays and the role of early twentieth century women playwrights in American theater history
