Small Arms Survey 2001:

Small Arms Survey 2001 Graduate Institute of International Studies (Geneva, Switzerland), 2001 In its premier issue this volume provides the first broad overview of major aspects of the problem of small arms and light weapons proliferation Issues covered include products and producers global firearms stockpiles brokers and transport agents legal small arms transfers illicit small arms transfers the effects of small arms availability and multilateral measures and initiatives The Survey will serve as the principal source of public information on all aspects of small arms and as a resource center for governments policy makers researchers and activists With international contributors from a variety of backgrounds it will interest all those in security studies political science law economics development studies and sociology Small Arms Survey 2003, 2003 This title includes information and analysis on global small arms production stockpiles and legal and illicit transfers and a review of international regional and national measures to address the issue of small arms proliferation Small Arms Survey

2014 Small Arms Survey, Geneva, 2014-07-03 The Small Arms Survey 2014 considers the multiple roles of women in the context of armed violence security and the small arms agenda The volume's thematic section comprises one chapter on violence against women and girls with a focus on post conflict Liberia and Nepal and another on the recent convergence of the small arms agenda with that of women peace and security Complementing these chapters are illustrated testimonies of women with experience as soldiers rebels and security personnel The weapons and markets section assesses the potential impact of the Arms Trade Treaty presents the 2014 Transparency Barometer and an update on the authorised small arms trade and analyses recent ammunition explosions in the Republic of the Congo Additionally it examines ammunition circulating in Africa and the Middle East maps the sources of insurgent weapons in Sudan and South Sudan and evaluates crime gun records in the United States Small Arms Survey 2010 Small Arms Survey, Geneva, 2010-06-03 The Small Arms Survey 2010 focuses on gangs and non state armed groups Gang violence while typically directed at other gang members can account for a major portion of social violence Armed groups whatever their orientation to the state are of growing concern in conflict and post conflict settings where their activities can have serious repercussions for human security This volume reviews a range of issues related to gangs and armed groups exploring their functions roles and use of violence as well as emerging efforts to address the damage they inflict on society The volume explores prison gangs gender aspects of gangs and pro government groups it also features case studies from Ecuador and southern Sudan Original research on the global ammunition trade and on options for controlling illicit firearm transfers by air rounds out the book Small Arms Survey

2012 Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (Geneva, Switzerland), Small Arms Survey, Geneva, 2012-08-30 The Small Arms Survey 2012 seeks to increase our scrutiny of what is changing and not changing in relation to armed violence and small arms proliferation Chapters on firearm homicide in Latin America and the Caribbean drug violence in selected Latin American countries and non lethal violence worldwide illustrate that security is a moving target armed violence both lethal and non lethal continues to undermine the security and wellbeing of people and societies around the world The goal of curbing small arms proliferation embodied in the UN Programme of Action appears similarly elusive Chapters on illicit small arms in war zones trade transparency Somali piracy and the 2011 UN Meeting of Governmental Experts highlight some of the successes but also the continuing challenges in this area Country studies on Kazakhstan and Somaliland along with the final instalment of the authorized transfers project round out the 2012 edition

Small Arms Survey 2015 Small Arms Survey,2015-07-30 The Small Arms Survey 2015 examines the role of weapons and armed violence in humanity s appropriation of the earth s wildlife and mineral riches in Africa where the poaching of elephants and rhinos is becoming increasingly militarised and near resource extraction sites around the world In addition to presenting updates on the UN small arms process and the top arms importers and exporters the volume assesses how recent technological developments affect weapons marking record keeping and tracing reviews small arms flows to Egypt Libya and Syria and evaluates a stockpile management initiative in south east Europe The armed actors section sheds light on the arms and ammunition used by insurgents in northern Mali the decline of the Forces D mocratiques de Lib ration du Rwanda and the use of floating armouries by private security companies in the Indian Ocean This edition also analyses conditions that are driving young people to adopt high risk coping strategies in Burundi Small Arms Survey 2007 Small Arms

Survey,Graduate Institute of International Studies (Geneva, Switzerland),2007-09-06 The Small Arms Survey 2007 features a special focus on the complex issue of urban violence Small Arms Survey 2015 Keith Krause,2015-07-30 Highlights emerging trends and concerns regarding armed violence and small arms proliferation as well as related policies and programming Small Arms Survey 2008 Small Arms Survey,Graduate Institute of International and Development

Studies (Geneva, Switzerland),2008-07-31 The Small Arms Survey 2008 examines the problem of diversion and analyses the public health approach to armed violence Postinternationalism and Small Arms Control Damien Rogers,2016-04-08

Even though impacts generated by the widespread availability and ongoing use of small arms and light weapons have not reached a magnitude sufficient to radically reorder contemporary world affairs awareness of the nature and extent of these impacts has compelled some international actors to take decisive action Damien Rogers examines how the international community has responded to the challenge of controlling small arms and light weapons since the early 1990s Using a postinternationalist analytic framework he specifically focuses on the maturing relationships between particular actors of world affairs and the nascent interconnectivity between their strategies for and approaches toward controlling these weapons Furthermore the book identifies ways in which the captains of small arms industry arms brokers and chief users of these weapons are able to mitigate resist or elude the intended effects of those responses
