phenomenon and chronicles how this group much maligned and persecuted became a dominant cultural force in the world today Edmonds charts the evolution of the relationship between Rastafari and the wider Jamaican society from confrontation and repression to grudging tolerance and eventually to cultural integration Edmonds focuses in particular on the internal development of Rastafarianism as a social movement with its network of houses small informal groups that form around leading Rastas and mansions larger more communal associations to track the process of this strikingly successful integration He further demonstrates how Rastafarian artistic creativity especially in fashioning the music and message of reggae was a significant factor in the transition of Rastas from the status of outcasts to the position of cultural bearers Sounds of the Citizens Anne M. Galvin, 2014-06-30 Dancehall it s simultaneously a source of raucous energy in the streets of Kingston Jamaica a way of life for a group of professional artists and music professionals and a force of stability and tension within the community Electronically influenced relevant to urban Jamaicans and highly danceable dancehall music and culture forms a core of popular entertainment in the nation As Anne Galvin reveals in Sounds of the Citizens the rhythms of dancehall music reverberate in complicated ways throughout the lives of countless Jamaicans Galvin highlights the unique alliance between the dancehall industry and community development efforts As the central role of the state in supporting communities has diminished the rise of private efforts such as dancehall becomes all the more crucial The tension however between those involved in the industry and those within the neighborhoods is palpable and often dangerous Amidst all this individual Jamaicans interact with the dancehall industry and its culture to find their own paths of employment social identity and sexual mores As Sounds of the Citizens illustrates the world of entertainment in Jamaica is serious business and uniquely positioned as a powerful force within the community Talawa Theatre Company David Vivian Johnson, 2021-01-14 This
