Small Nation Global Cinema The New Danish Cinema:

Small Nation, Global Cinema Mette Hjort, Investigates the relationship between globalization and the New Danish Cinema Small Nation, Global Cinema Mette Hjort, 2005 Investigates the relationship between globalization and the New Danish Cinema World Cinemas, Transnational Perspectives Nataša Durovicová, Kathleen E. Newman, 2009-09-10 SCMS Award Winner Best Edited Collection The standard analytical category of national cinema has increasingly been called into question by the category of the transnational This anthology examines the premises and consequences of the coexistence of these two categories and the parameters of historiographical approaches that cross the borders of nation states The three sections of World Cinemas Transnational Perspectives cover the geopolitical imaginary transnational cinematic institutions and the uneven flow of words and images Thomas Vinterberg's Festen (The Celebration) C. Claire Thomson, 2014-02-01 Danish filmmaker Thomas Vinterberg's searing film Festen The Celebration was the first film from the Dogme 95 stable Adhering to Dogme's cinematic purity no artificial lighting no superficial action no credit for the director and only handheld cameras for equipment Festen was a commercial and critical success winning the Jury Prize at Cannes in 1998 and garnering worldwide attention The film is set at the sixtieth birthday party of Helge the wealthy patriarch of a large Danish family The birthday festivities take a turn when Helge's son Christian raises a toast and denounces Helge for having raped and abused him as a child along with his twin sister who recently committed suicide The film explores the escalating consequences of Christian's announcement from the stunned dinner party's collective denial to violence to an unexpected catharsis

Ecology and Contemporary Nordic Cinemas Pietari Kõõp, 2014-04-24 Challenges the traditional socio political rhetoric of national cinema by providing an ecocritical examination of Nordic cinema Crime and Fantasy in Scandinavia Andrew Nestingen, 2011-12-31 Scandinavian popular novels and films have flourished in the last thirty years In Crime and Fantasy in Scandinavia Andrew Nestingen argues that the growth and visibility of popular culture have been at the heart of the development of heterogeneous publics in Scandinavia in opposition to the homogenizing influence of the post World War II welfare state Novels and films have mobilized readers and viewers serving as a preeminent site for debates over individualism collectivity national homogeneity gender and transnational relations Crime and Fantasy in Scandinavia provides insight into the changing nature of civil society in Scandinavia through the lens of popular culture Nestingen develops his argument through the examination of genres where the central theme is individual transgression of societal norms crime films and novels melodramas and fantasy fiction Among the internationally known writers and filmmakers discussed are Henning Mankell Aki Kaurismäki Lukas Moodysson and Lars von Trier Encyclopedia of Global Studies Helmut K. Anheier, Mark Juergensmeyer, 2012-03-09 With all entries followed by cross references and further reading lists this current resource is ideal for high school and college students looking for connecting ideas and additional sources on them The work brings together the many facets of global studies into a solid reference tool and will help those developing and articulating an ideological perspective Library Journal The Encyclopedia of Global Studies is the reference work for the emerging field of global studies It covers both transnational topics and intellectual approaches to the study of global themes including the globalization of economies and technologies the diaspora of cultures and dispersion of peoples the transnational aspects of social and political change the global impact of environmental technological and health changes and the organizations and issues related to global civil society Key Themes Global civil society Global communications transportation technology Global conflict and security Global culture media Global demographic change Global economic issues Global environmental and energy issues Global governance and world order Global health and nutrition Global historical antecedents Global justice and legal issues Global religions beliefs ideologies Global studies Identities in global society Readership Students and academics in the fields of politics and international relations international business geography and environmental studies sociology and cultural studies and health Cinema Beyond Territory Stephen Groening, 2019-07-25 In this groundbreaking exploration of in flight cinema Stephen Groening traces the history of this transnational cinematic practice At once a history of exhibition and an inquiry into changing forms of media and spectatorship this interdisciplinary book opens up new directions in the history of cinema visuality travel and cultural geography Jews, Nazis and the Cinema of Hungary David Frey, 2017-02-28 Between 1929 and 1942 Hungary's motion picture industry experienced meteoric growth It leapt into Europe's top echelon trailing only Nazi Germany and Italy in feature output Yet by 1944 Hungary's cinema was in shambles internal and external forces having destroyed its unification experiments and productive capacity This original cultural and political history examines the birth unexpected ascendance and wartime collapse of Hungary's early sound cinema by placing it within a complex international nexus Detailing the interplay of Hungarian cultural and political elites Jewish film professionals and financiers Nazi officials and global film moguls David Frey demonstrates how the transnational process of forging an industry designed to define a national culture proved particularly contentious and surprisingly contradictory in the heyday of racial nationalism and antisemitism
