Small Towns in Recent American Crime Fiction David Geherin, 2014-12-04 Small towns have long been a commonplace setting in cozy mysteries but in recent years writers of realistic crime fiction have discovered fresh possibilities in small town settings There they can take advantage of distinct facets of small town life a sense of community slower pace of life proximity to nature and yet deal with social economic and environmental issues Because crimes in small communities hit closer to home the human element can better be emphasized This book focuses on the work of ten contemporary authors who have placed small towns like Rocksbury Pennsylvania K C Constantine West Table Missouri Daniel Woodrell Niniltna Alaska Dana Stabenow Aurora Minnesota William Kent Krueger Paradise Michigan Steve Hamilton Millersburg Ohio P L Gaus Heartsdale Georgia Karin Slaughter Millers Kill New York Julia Spencer Fleming Durant Wyoming Craig Johnson and a number of national parks Nevada Barr on the map of American crime fiction Armor, 2011 A Guide to Reclaiming Small Tailings Ponds and Dumps Gerald Harwood, 1979 Left to Tell Immaculée Ilibagiza, 2014-04-07 Immaculee Ilibagiza grew up in a country she loved surrounded by a family she cherished But in 1994 her idyllic world was ripped apart as Rwanda descended into a bloody genocide Immaculee s family was brutally murdered during a killing spree that lasted three months and claimed the lives of nearly a million Rwandans Incredibly Immaculee survived the slaughter For 91 days she and seven other women huddled silently together in the cramped bathroom of a local pastor while hundreds of machete wielding killers hunted for them It was during those endless hours of unspeakable terror that Immaculee discovered the power of prayer eventually shedding her fear of death and forging a profound and lasting relationship with God She emerged from her bathroom hideout having discovered the meaning of truly unconditional love a love so strong she was able seek out and forgive her family s killers The triumphant story of this remarkable young woman s journey through the darkness of genocide will inspire anyone whose life has been touched by fear suffering and loss
