Smith Ricardo Marx Observations On The History Of Economic Thought:

Teaching the History of Economic Thought Daniela Tavasci, Luigi Ventimiglia, 2018-04-28 Stemming from the idea that economics is a social science that tends to forget its own history this refreshing book reflects on the role of teaching with historical perspectives It offers novel ways of integrating the history of economics into the curriculum both in history of economic thought modules and in other sub disciplines Coming from a wide diversity of experiences the chapters share the idea that studying the history of thought exposes students to pluralism and is therefore an essential pedagogical tool The SAGE Handbook of Marxism Beverley Skeggs, Sara R. Farris, Alberto Toscano, Svenja Bromberg, 2021-11-17 The past decade has witnessed a resurgence of interest in Marxism both within and without the academy Marxian frameworks concepts and categories continue to be narratively relevant to the features and events of contemporary capitalism Most crucially an attention to shifting cultural conditions has lead contemporary researchers to re confront some classical and essential Marxist concepts as well as elaborating new critical frameworks for the analysis of capitalism today The SAGE Handbook of Marxism showcases this cutting edge of today s Marxism It advances the debate with essays that rigorously map and renew the concepts that have provided the groundwork and main currents for Marxist theory and showcases interventions that set the agenda for Marxist research in the 21st century A rigorous and challenging collection of scholarship this book contains a stunning range of contributions from contemporary academics writers and theorists from around the world and across disciplines invaluable to scholars and graduate students alike Part 1 Reworking the critique of political economy Part 2 Forms of domination subjects of struggle Part 3 Political perspectives Part 4 Philosophical dimensions Part 5 Land and existence Part 6 Domains Part 7 Inquiries and debates Recharting the History of Economic Thought Kevin Deane, Elisa van Waeyenberge, 2020-04-08 This ground breaking new textbook takes a thematic approach to the history of economic thought introducing current economic issues and examining the relevant arguments of key economists By taking this innovative approach the book sets these pivotal ideas in a contemporary context helping readers to engage with the material and see the applications to today s society and economy Based on courses developed by the authors the text introduces a range of perspectives and encourages critical reflection upon neoclassical economics Through exposure to a broader spectrum of sometimes conflicting propositions readers are able to evaluate the strengths weaknesses and relevance of different economic theories Recharting the History of Economic Thought is an invaluable companion for those taking courses in the History of Economic Thought the Development of Economic Ideas Developing Economic Thinking or Economic Thought and Policy It will also appeal to anyone looking for an introduction to pluralist approaches to economics Towards a New Understanding of Sraffa Scott Carter, 2014-10-22 This book provides fresh insights on Piero Sraffa s work by examining previously unpublished papers from Sraffa archives It offers new perspectives on the connection between Sraffa and Marx and examines Sraffa s approach to money the role of equilibrium and of the surplus in economic theory

Economic Philosophy Adelino Zanini, 2008 The book investigates the relationship between the economic and political writings of four seminal authors Adam Smith Karl Marx Joseph A Schumpeter and John M Keynes It underlines how in their works the nexus between ethics economics and politics has produced four exemplary solutions They represent the most relevant modern formulations of the idea of political interest to which the philosophical and political debate constantly returns as the thought of Carl Schmitt Hannah Arendt and Michel Foucault demonstrates The author discusses the different interpretations by considering economic science not as a natural but as moral and political science A Biographical Dictionary of Dissenting Economists Philip Arestis, Malcolm C. Sawyer, 2001-01-01 Annotation Samuelsonian Economics and the Twenty-First Century Michael Szenberg, Lall Ramrattan, Aron A. Gottesman, 2006-08-24 This volume illuminates and critically assesses Paul A Samuelson's voluminous and groundbreaking contributions to the field of economics The volume includes contributions from eminent scholars including 6 Nobel Laureates covering the extraordinary depth and breadth of Samuelson's contributions Samuelson the first American economist to win the Nobel prize in 1970 was the foremost voice in economics in the latter half of the 20th century He single handedly transformed the discipline by creating a new way of presenting economics making it possible for it to be cast all in mathematical terms Samuelson developed broad frameworks such as the neoclassical synthesis a mixed economy and the surrogate production function which provided practitioners with a vision for research Samuelson's contributions to economics are rich complex consequential and relevant to the ordinary economics of life The quality of Samuelson's output and methods leave no doubt that his contributions continue to be timely and relevant even in the 21st century Ideal as a reference or an introduction to Samuelson's work this is a must have for students and academics alike Politics and Philosophy in the Thought of Destutt

de Tracy Brian W. Head, 2019-11-21 First published in 1987 This study describes and analyses the published writings of the French philosopher Antoine Destutt de Tracy The author focuses on the three decades from the calling of the Etats généraux to the early years of the Restoration the period of Tracy's entire literary production and the period of his greatest influence and reputation This title will be of great interest to students of history philosophy and politics The Reading of Theoretical Texts Peter Ekegren, 2002-01-04 Since the structuralist debates of the 1970s the field of textual analysis has largely remained the preserve of literary theorists Social scientists while accepting that observation is theory laden have tended to take the meaning of texts as given and to explain differences of interpretation either in terms of ignorance or bias In this important contribution to methodological debate Peter Ekegren uses developments within literary criticism philosophy and critical theory to reclaim this study for the social sciences and to illuminate the ways in which different readings of a single text are created and defended Marx Worldwide Jan Hoff, 2016-11-21 In his study Jan Hoff charts the unprecedented global boost that has been experienced by critical Marxism since the mid 1960s In particular Hoff shows the development of interpretations of Marx's method of critical social theory oriented towards Marx's critique of political economy and of significant disputes concerning the different versions and iterations of the critical project that ultimately culminated in Capital His book investigates the globalisation of Marx debates the complex network of international theoretical approaches that have been devised between the poles of science and politics the transfer of theory and the historical development of schools of thought beyond national and linguistic borders Marx Worldwide provides an overview of Marx reception in various regions of the world in which the extra European process of theory formation receives particular attention and it shows how despite the supersession of Marxism in the sense of an all encompassing worldview the Marxian aim of providing an explication of the internal connection of economic categories and relations and thereby of accomplishing the de mystification of the deranged world of the economy is as relevant and as theoretically important as it has ever been First published in German by Akademie Verlag as Marx Global Zur Entwicklung des internationalen Marx Diskurses seit 1965 Berlin 2009
