Campaigns and Elections American Style James A Thurber,2018-04-19 Dramatic changes in political institutions and behavior over the past three decades have underscored the dynamic nature of American politics confronting political scientists with a new and pressing intellectual agenda The pioneering work of early postwar scholars while laying a firm empirical foundation for contemporary scholarship failed to consider how American politics might change or recognize the forces that would make fundamental change inevitable In reassessing the static interpretations fostered by these classic studies political scientists are now examining the underlying dynamics that generate transformational change Transforming American Politics is a series that brings together texts addressing four closely related aspects of change A first concern is documenting and explaining recent changes in American politics in institutions processes behavior and policymaking A second is reinterpreting classic studies and theories to provide a more accurate perspective on postwar politics The series looks at historical change to identify recurring patterns of political transformation within and across the distinctive eras of American politics Last and perhaps most important the series presents new theories and interpretations that explain the dynamic processes at work and thus clarify the direction of contemporary politics All of the books focus on the central theme of transformation transformation in both the conduct of American politics and in the way we study and understand its many aspects Routledge Handbook of Political Management Dennis W. Johnson,2010-03-17 A comprehensive overview of the field of applied politics encompassing political consulting campaigns and elections lobbying and advocacy grass roots politics fundraising media and political communications the role of the parties political leadership and the ethical dimensions of public life Campaigns from the Ground Up John S Klemanski, David A. Dulio, Michael Switalski, 2015-11-17 Based on data from the most recent elections this book examines state house races in four key states California Texas Michigan and Virginia and creates simulations of campaign planning strategizing budgeting fundraising and winning in a variety of political contexts The authors have not only researched and taught about these issues they have conducted campaigns run for office and served in government at every level from the local to the national They have experience confronting questions of campaign ethics and crisis management and they actively embrace social media in their work Internet fundraising as well as campaign websites are among the many media subjects included This is a book not just for candidates campaign professionals and students but for all concerned citizens who want to understand the pathways of politics better
