The Asian World 600 1500 The Medieval And Early Modern World:

The Asian World, 600-1500 Roger V. Des Forges, John S. Major, 2005 Drawing on numerous primary sources this volume covers the history of Asia from the reunification of China under the Sui and Tang dynasties from the fifth century CE to Choson Korea in the 16th century also covering other parts of the continent including India and Japan This book is designed to serve the seventh grade social studies curriculum in California and other states The Medieval and Early Modern World tells the colorful story of a pivotal period in human history an era that is crucial to understanding our own times The expansion of trade and city life the spread and reform of religious institutions the rise of regional empires and local feudal regimes and revolutionary advances in science and technology laid the foundation for the modern world Told through the words and experiences of the people who lived it kings queens and commoners priests and lay people explorers scientists artists and world travelers this is a world history for a new generation Student Study Guide to The Asian World, 600-1500 Roger Des Forges, John Major, 2005-10 The Christian doctrine of heaven has been a moral source of enormous power in western culture It has provided a striking account of the ultimate good in life and has for two millennia animated the hope that our lives can be fully meaningful Recently however the doctrine of heaven has lost much of its grip on the western imagination and has become a vague and largely ignored part of the Christian creed Not only have our hopes been redefined as a result but our very identity as human beings has been altered In this book Jerry L Walls argues that the doctrine of heaven is ripe for serious reconsideration He contends not only that the orthodox view of heaven can be defended from objections commonly raised against it but also that heaven is a powerful resource for addressing persistent philosophical problems not the least of which concern the ground of morality and the meaning of life Walls shows how heaven is integrally related to central Christian doctrines particularly those concerning salvation and tackles the difficult problem of why faith in Christ is necessary to save us from our sins In addition heaven is shown to illumine thorny problems of personal identity and to be an essential component of a satisfactory theodicy Walls goes on to examine data from near death experiences from the standpoint of some important recent work in epistemology and argues that they offer positive evidence for heaven He concludes that we profoundly need to recover the hope of heaven in order to recover our very humanity The Asian World, 600-1500 Roger V.
