The Autobiographical Documentary In America Wisconsin Studies In Autobiography:

The Autobiographical Documentary in America Jim Lane, 2002-04-29 Since the late 1960s American film and video makers of all genres have been fascinated with themes of self and identity Though the documentary form is most often used to capture the lives of others Jim Lane turns his lens on those media makers who document their own lives and identities He looks at the ways in which autobiographical documentaries including Roger and Me Sherman's March and Silverlake Life raise weighty questions about American cultural life What is the role of women in society What does it mean to die from AIDS How do race and class play out in our personal lives What does it mean to be a member of a family Examining the history diversity and theoretical underpinnings of this increasingly popular documentary form Lane tracks a fundamental transformation of notions of both autobiography and documentary

Reading Autobiography Now Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 2024-07-09 A user friendly guide to reading writing and theorizing autobiographical texts and practices for students scholars and practitioners of life narrative The boom in autobiographical narratives continues apace It now encompasses a global spectrum of texts and practices in such media as graphic memoir auto photography performance and plastic arts film and video and online platforms Reading Autobiography Now offers both a critical engagement with life narrative in historical perspective and a theoretical framework for interpreting texts and practices in this wide ranging field Hailed upon its initial publication as the Whole Earth Catalog of autobiography studies this essential book has been updated reorganized and expanded in scope to serve as an accessible and contemporary guide for scholars students and practitioners Sidonie Smith and Julia Watson explore definitions of life narrative probe issues of subjectivity and outline salient features of autobiographical acts and practices In this updated edition they address emergent topics such as autotheory autofiction and autoethnography expand the discussions of identity relationality and agency and introduce new material on autobiographical archives and the profusion of I s in contemporary works Smith and Watson also provide a helpful toolkit of strategies for reading life narrative and an extensive glossary of mini essays analyzing key theoretical concepts and dozens of autobiographical genres An indispensable exploration of this expansive transnational multimedia field Reading Autobiography Now meticulously unpacks the heterogeneous modes of life narratives through which people tell their stories from traditional memoirs and trauma narratives to collaborative life narrative and autobiographical comics

Edmund Goulding's Dark Victory Matthew Kennedy, 2004 At the dawn of sound he wrote the story for the Academy Award winning musical The Broadway Melody and collaborated memorably with Gloria Swanson and Joseph Kennedy for The Trespasser He excelled at anti war drama White Banners The Dawn Patrol We Are Not Alone fantastic Bette Davis weepies Dark Victory The Old Maid The Great Lie lilting romantic dramas The Constant Nymph Claudia big budgeted literary adaptations The Razor's Edge and even film noir Nightmare Alley

From the Tourist's Gaze Pietro Agnoletto, 2025-06-27 From the Tourist's Gaze bridges environmental humanities and amateur cinema studies exploring tourism induced environmental issues through the visual representations created by tourists themselves The protagonists of the book are families from North West Italy and their holiday films captured during their holidays in the Ligurian Riviera The timeframe spans between the 1950s and 1970s the so called Italian economic miracle a period in which Italy experienced an extraordinary and rapid economic growth and consequentially a rise in living standards including tourism and film cameras accessibility Radical environmental transformations such as the industrialization and cementing of spaces or the conversion of entire coastlines into territories equipped to receive masses of tourists were just one of the consequences studied from a myriad of sources but never through amateur films The most illustrative case is the Ligurian Riviera which has been regarded as an example of land consumption since those contemporary years Despite being centered on a specific case study readers will be equipped with practical tools to enhance their study of historical amateur films These tools are introduced through innovative methodological approaches to archival research and visual analysis The results will highlight the visual imagery of mid 20th century tourists and their perspectives on the destinations they visited offering fresh visually oriented insights that contribute to the field of tourism studies As a visual journey through mid 20th century Italian tourism and its environmental narratives it may interest cultural geographers tourism and media scholars and the broader group of environmental humanists the latter will have the opportunity to explore amateur cinema as an untapped resource for understanding cultural narratives while amateur cinema scholars will have an example of a fresh and different approach to their subject It can also give new insights to archivists specialized in home movies and be appealing to scholars and intellectuals interested in these topics

Rethinking Identities Across Boundaries Claudia Capancioni, Mariaconcetta Costantini, Mara Mattoscio, 2023-11-22 This collection of essays aims to widen the current critique on borders by examining their entanglements with constructions of identity and disciplinary categories In particular it calls into question established models of gender notions of narrative genres and typological genera of borders in today's literary artistic philosophical and socio political discourse The chapters interrogate boundaries and boundary crossing not only in terms of geographical frontiers and the physical acts of trespassing but also as discursive constructs that police crossing subjects as gendered subjects on the one hand and identify artistic genres and academic disciplines as fixed sealed in ways of understanding the world on the other Taking inspiration from the multiple meanings of the Italian word genere which stands for gender genre and typology genus simultaneously the volume reflects on the gendered narrative and typological nature of borders and border imagery and on the significance and potentialities of crossover phenomena taking place in borderlands in the fields of arts literature anthropology sociology and philosophy

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian

Aitken,2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation

The Autobiographical Turn in Germanophone Documentary and Experimental Film Robin Curtis,Angelica Fenner,2014 The essays in this volume examine the parameters shaping the audiovisual self in the Germanophone cultural context across a variety of practices and aesthetic modes from contemporary artists including Hito Steyerl Ming Wong and Kate Herron to Rolf Dieter Brinkmann s multimedia experiments of the 1970s and from Helke Misselwitz s challenges to the documentary tradition in the GDR to Peter Liechti s investigations of Swiss ambivalence toward the nation s iconic landscape The volume thus takes up a number of historically and geographically specific iterations of autobiographical discourse that in each case remain contingent on the space and time in which they are uttered

International Documentary ,2004 Filming History from Below Efrén

Cuevas,2022-01-11 Traditional historical documentaries strive to project a sense of objectivity producing a top down view of history that focuses on public events and personalities In recent decades in line with historiographical trends advocating history from below a different type of historical documentary has emerged focusing on tightly circumscribed subjects personal archives and first person perspectives Efrén Cuevas categorizes these films as microhistorical documentaries and examines how they push cinema s capacity as a producer of historical knowledge in new directions Cuevas pinpoints the key features of these documentaries identifying their parallels with written microhistory a reduced scale of observation a central role given to human agency a conjectural approach to the use of archival sources and a reliance on narrative structures Microhistorical documentaries also use tools specific to film to underscore the affective dimension of historical narratives often incorporating autobiographical and essayistic perspectives and highlighting the role of the protagonists personal memories in the reconstruction of the past These films generally draw from family archives with an emphasis on snapshots and home movies Filming History from Below examines works including Peter Forgacs's films dealing with the Holocaust such as The Maelstrom and Free Fall documentaries about the Israeli Palestinian conflict Rithy Panh's work on the Cambodian genocide films about the internment of Japanese Americans during the Second World War such as A Family Gathering and History and Memory and Jonas Mekas's chronicle of migration in his diary film Lost Lost Lost
