Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1963-06-07 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya

Post-colonialism and the Politics of Kenya D. Pal S. Ahluwalia,1996 The study of Africa arouses many passions and prejudices which are the subject of this book This book seeks to examine the hegemonic role that African studies has played in the invention of Africanism Politics within Kenya remains entrapped by Western constructions of institutions and the practice of politics The post colonial period is linked inextricably to the colonial period Kenya's political economic social and cultural framework has been and continues to be dominated by the colonial legacy The discussion of Africanism earlier suggests that the decolonisation process did not achieve liberation fully except in the narrowest of political terms Rather the West continued its dominance by more subtle means which has permeated the very imagination of the colonised It is this continuing colonisation of the imagination which dominates the political scene The ever increasing hegemonic role of donor agencies and donor countries under the guise of structural adjustment programmes ensures that countries such as Kenya become hostage to the latest manifestation of Africanism

Eminent Parliamentarians Philip Norton,2012-10-22 To celebrate the centenary of the 1911 Parliament Act John Bercow Speaker of the House of Commons instigated a series of public lectures in which current parliamentarians assessed the careers and characters of parliamentary giants The result was a sequence of fascinating appraisals covering a distinguished but eclectic array of politicians who made a name for themselves not only in the House of Commons but also throughout the country The subjects of the lectures came from diverse backgrounds advocated very different political philosophies and indeed some make surprising bedfellows But they all had one thing in common driven by a set of particular beliefs they were prepared to do whatever was necessary in pursuit of their goals From Nicholas Soames's warm familial tribute to his grandfather Winston Churchill to Neil Kinnock's account of an affectionate though sometimes fraught relationship with Michael Foot the roll call of both lecturers and subjects is outstanding With his subject sitting in the audience Tristram Hunt delivers the lecture on Tony Benn Shirley

Williams looks at the life of Nancy Astor the first woman to take her seat in Parliament Philip Norton and Peter Tapsell tackle the towering figures of Enoch Powell and F E Smith as an authority on his subject Kenneth Morgan discusses David Lloyd George while fellow historian Gordon Marsden speaks on Aneurin Bevan Douglas Hurd reflects on the life of Iain Macleod and Andrew Adonis and John Whittingdale both provide an insider's insight into the parliamentary lives of Roy Jenkins and Margaret Thatcher With a foreword by John Bercow and an introduction by Philip Norton this is an impressive collection of lectures delivered by expert speakers on the most eminent of parliamentarians Transforming Political Leadership in Local Government R. Berg, N. Rao, 2005-11-10 Local governments throughout the west are undergoing a transformation of their leadership styles and structures Some countries have abandoned traditional systems of collective or committee based decision making in favour of Cabinet models or more radically a directly elected executive mayor while others have strengthened existing mayoral systems There are a few exceptions to this trend Based on original research in eleven countries the book assesses these changes in terms of their implications for political accountability the role of lay politicians political recruitment the professionalization of leadership and relations with the bureaucracy Poverty, Politics and Policy Keith G. Banting, 2015-12-22
