The Asian Film Industry:

The Asian Film Industry John A. Lent, 1990 Global Development of Asian Cinema in the Film Industry Wang, Changsong, Yong, Cheng Fei, Marta, Rustono Farady, 2025-02-18 The global development of Asian cinema has shaped the international film industry introducing diverse storytelling unique cultural perspectives and innovative filmmaking techniques From the rise of Bollywood in India to the acclaimed cinema of East Asia Asian filmmakers have made a mark on global audiences Films from Asia have gained widespread recognition for their artistic merit critical acclaim and box office success breaking barriers in both content and form As the industry evolves the influence of Asian cinema grows fostering cross cultural collaborations expanding global markets and challenging traditional norms in filmmaking highlighting the increasing importance of Asian voices in the future of the global film industry Global Development of Asian Cinema in the Film Industry explores the reception of Asian film aesthetics and consumption behaviors among global audiences It provides practical guidance for advancing the international development of the Asian film industry This book covers topics such as digital streaming political science and posthumanism and is a useful resource for filmmakers business owners media and communications professionals sociologists historians academicians and researchers Japanese and Hong Kong Film Industries Shuk-ting, Kinnia Yau, 2009-09-11 Drawing on first hand materials collected from the Chinese and Japanese literature as well as interviews with more than twenty filmmakers and scholars Kinnia Shuk ting Yau provides a solid historical account of the complex interactions between Japanese and Hong Kong film industries from the 1930s to 1970s The author describes in detail how Japan s efforts during the 1930s and 1940s to produce a Greater East Asian cinema led to many different kinds of collaborations between the filmmakers from China Hong Kong and Japan and how such development had laid the foundation for more exchanges between the cinemas in the post war period The period covered by the book is the least understood period of the East Asian film history Filling the gaps surrounding one of the most important but least understood periods of Asian film history this books discusses facts and resources once obscured by controversial issues related to wartime affairs with new insights and perspectives This book is an invaluable source of information for understanding how the current East Asian film networks came into existence by looking beyond conventional single case studies and adopting a transnational perspective in tracing the connections between different film industries Cultural Intermediaries in East Asian Film Industries Eyal Ben-Ari, Heung-Wah Wong, 2021-12-20 This book explores the roles cultural intermediaries play in East Asian cinema Based on extensive original research and viewing cinema from the social science perspective which emphasizes the social processes entailed in the cultural production circulation and consumption of films and the social relations they involve rather than studying films as texts the book examines issues such as the differences between individual and collective intermediaries the diverse resources and services that they mediate their social background and targeted audiences and the political implications of their work One important conclusion is that cultural intermediaries have been central to creating the whole idea of East Asian cinema East Asian Cinemas V.

Lee,2011-04-12 This book is an original volume of essays that sheds new and critical light on current and emerging filmmaking trends and practices in China Taiwan Hong Kong Japan and South Korea A timely and important contribution to existing scholarship in the field Japanese and Hong Kong Film Industries Yau Shuk-ting, Kinnia,2009-09-11 Focuses on the cooperation between Hong Kong and Japanese cinema from the Sino Japanese War which broke out in the 1930s up until the early 1970s to re evaluate the significance of this event in the context of Asian film history The Asian Cinema

Experience Stephen Teo,2013 This book explores the range and dynamism of contemporary Asian cinemas covering East Asia China Japan South Korea Hong Kong Taiwan Southeast Asia Thailand Singapore Malaysia South Asia Bollywood and West Asia Iran in order to discover what is common about them and to engender a theory or concept of Asian Cinema It goes beyond existing work which provides a field survey of Asian cinema probing more deeply into the field of Asian Cinema arguing that Asian Cinema constitutes a separate pedagogical subject and putting forward an alternative cinematic paradigm The book covers styles including the works of classical Asian Cinema masters and specific genres such as horror films and Bollywood and Anime two very popular modes of Asian Cinema spaces including artistic use of space and perspective in Chinese cinema geographic and personal space in Iranian cinema the private erotic space of films from South Korea and Thailand and the persistence of the family unit in the urban spaces of Asian big cities in many Asian films and concepts such as Pan Asianism Orientalism Nationalism and Third Cinema The rise of Asian nations on the world stage has been coupled with a growing interest both inside and outside Asia of Asian culture of which film is increasingly an indispensable component this book provides a rich insightful overview of what exactly constitutes Asian Cinema The South Korean

Film Industry Sangjoon Lee,Dal Yong Jin,Junhyung Cho,2024-08-08 As shown by the success of Squid Game and Parasite South Korea s film industry is producing films and original series for streaming services film studios and television stations worldwide South Korea is now arguably considered one of the few countries outside the United States to have captivated the world s hearts and minds through pop music TV dramas and film Similarly the exponential growth in the South Korean film industry has been mirrored by a growing body of industry and film policy forums and academic conferences in both the East and the West The South Korean Film Industry is the first detailed scholarly overview of the South Korean film industry The thirteen chapters discuss topics from short films to popular television series that have engaged global audiences Contributors explore the major changes in South Korean film making marketing and in the international growth and popularity of South Korean films By bringing together a wide range of academic specialists The South Korean Film Industry situates the current scholarship on South Korean cinema within the ongoing theoretical debates in contemporary global film studies This volume will be widely read in undergraduate and graduate classes related to Korean and East Asian studies cinema and media studies cultural studies and communication studies Moreover many institutions offer dedicated modules on South Korean cinema media and popular culture for which The South Korean Film Industry will be ideal East Asian Cinemas Leon Hunt, Leung Wing-Fai, 2010-10-18 Cinemas from East Asia are among the most exciting and influential in the world They are attracting popular and critical attention on a global scale with films from the region circulating as art house cult blockbuster and extreme cinema or as Hollywood remakes This book explores developments in the global popularity of East Asian cinema from Chinese martial arts through Japanese horror to the burgeoning new Korean cinema with particular emphasis on crossovers remakes hybrids and co productions It examines changing cinematic traditions in Asia alongside the Asianisation of western cinema It explores the dialogue not only between East and West but between different cinemas in the Asia Pacific What do these trends mean for global cinema How are co productions and crossover films changing the nature of Hollywood and East Asian cinemas The book includes in depth studies of Park Chan-wook Infernal Affairs Seven Samurai and Princess Mononoke

New Economic Spaces in Asian Cities Peter W. Daniels, K.C. Ho, Thomas A. Hutton, 2012-04-27 The East and Southeast Asia region constitutes the world's most compelling theatre of accelerated globalization and industrial restructuring Following a spectacular realization of the industrialization paradigm and a period of services led growth the early twenty first century economic landscape among leading Asian states now comprises a burgeoning New Economy spectrum of the most advanced industrial trajectories including finance the knowledge economy and the new cultural economy In an agenda setting volume New Economic Spaces in Asian Cities draws on stimulating research conducted by a new generation of urban scholars to generate critical analysis and theoretical insights on the New Economy phenomenon within Asia New industry formation and the transformation of older economic practices constitute instruments of development as well as signifiers of larger processes of change expressed in the reproduction of space in the city Asia's major cities become the key staging areas for the New Economy driven by the growing wealth of an urban middle and professional class higher education institutions city based inter regional movements and urban mega projects New Economic Spaces in Asian Cities animates this New Economy discourse by means of vibrant storylines of instructive cities and sites including cases studies situated in cities such as Tokyo Seoul Shanghai Beijing Shenzhen and Singapore Theoretical and normative issues associated with the emergence of the new cultural economy are the subject of the book's context setting chapters and each case study presents an evocative narrative of development interdependencies and exemplary outcomes on the ground New Economic Spaces in Asian Cities offers a vivid contribution to our understanding of the ongoing transformation of Asia's urban system including the critical intersections of global and local regional dynamics in processes of new industry formation and the relayering of space in the Asian metropolis The synthesis of empirical profiles normative insights and theoretical reference points enhances the book's interest for scholars and students in fields of Asian studies urban and cultural studies and urban and economic geography as well as for policy specialists and urban community planners
