The Back Room:

The Girls in the Back Room Kelly Hankin, 2002 The first comprehensive study of lesbian bars sheds light on this often overlooked aspect of gay subculture focusing on the erotic romantic and social interactions that happen in such places Simultaneous Social Science The Backroom Boys Graeme Sligo, 2013-10-05 The Backroom Boys is the remarkable but little known story of how a varied group of talented intellectuals drafted into the Australian Army in the dark days of 1942 provided high level policy advice to Australia's most senior soldier General Blamey and through him to the Government for the remainder of the war and beyond This band of academics lawyers and New Guinea patrol officers formed a unique military unit the Directorate of Research and Civil Affairs under the command of an eccentric and masterful string puller Alf Conlon The Directorate has been depicted as a haven for underemployed poets or meddling soldier politicians Based on wide ranging research this book reveals a fuller and more fascinating picture The fierce conflicts in the wartime bureaucracy between public servants and soldiers in which the Directorate provided critical support to Blamey went to the heart of military command accountability and the profession of arms The Directorate was a pioneer in developing approaches to military government in areas liberated by the combat troops as demonstrated by the Australian Army in New Guinea and Borneo in 1945-46 It is an issue of enduring importance The Directorate established the Australian School of Pacific Administration and had an important role in founding the Australian National University Its influence extended into post war Australia The Backroom Boys emphasises the personality of Colonel Alf Conlon as well as the talented men and women he recruited Above all this book shows how unexpectedly the Australian Army fostered a group of men and women who made a lasting contribution to the development of Australia in the decades after the war Essays and Tales in Prose: The story of the backroom window. A chapter of fragments. The usher. Monsieur de Bearn. The happy day. On English tragedy. On English poetry. A defence of poetry. Four dramatic scenes Barry Cornwall, 1853 The Back Room Carmen Martín Gaité, 2000-04-01 In the middle of the night a woman awakens to find a stranger in her bedroom Though she cannot determine who he is or indeed whether he is even real at all and not just an extension of her dreams or her writing she is drawn into a conversation The Backroom Brigade Seetha, 2006 Back in 1993 American Express launched its rupee cards in India It was an operation similar to those it was running in other countries Except for the curious fact that while the quality of the operations seemed to be better than elsewhere the costs were much lower Certain that something was wrong with the figures the company's comptroller visited India and found that the reports were indeed correct That initial discovery would lead shortly after to the decision to locate the company's finance functions for the Asia Pacific region in India The centre was set up in the Mohan Cooperative Industrial Area along Delhi's busy Mathura Road a beehive of corporate offices and factories that is still plagued by the standard Indian malaise of power cuts Setting up the centre was a nightmare from dealing with babudom to establishing the all important connectivity but somewhere along the line things began to come together and the centre began to efficiently execute processes that were seen as time consuming and difficult. The Amex centre in hindsight might count as the precursor of the BPO revolution that has spawned close to 400 ITES IT enabled services BPO units in the country. The sector now employs around 300 000 people ranging from call centre staff selling credit cards to Americans in an American accent to analysts preparing research reports for Wall Street investment bankers and generates an astounding 5 billion Rs 22 500 crore in revenue. That figure is to quadruple in the next two years even as piquantly it is now people in the West who complain of loss of jobs as companies route work to India.

In The Backroom Brigade How a Few Intrepid Entrepreneurs Brought the World to India Seetha a Delhi based economic journalist tells the story of this entire phenomenon how a group of people combining sophisticated technology with the improvisational skills of a street mechanic changed the way the world looked at India. The Backroom Boy Mandla Mathebula, 2017-04-04

The Backroom Boy opens dramatically in China 1962 Andrew Mlangeni is one of a small select group undergoing military training there. The unannounced visitor is Mao Tse Tung or Chairman Mao as he was known. Chairman of the Communist Party of China Mlangeni was selected as one of the first ever six members who received military training in China before the formation of Umkhonto we Sizwe. He seems to have been chosen because he was a dedicated intelligent and dependable operative rather than a leader. Even after his release after 25 years on Robben Island Mlangeni was not given a senior position in the post apartheid democratic government. I was always the backroom boy says Andrew Mlangeni about himself. Andrew Mlangeni is a struggle stalwart Rivonia Trialist and Robben Island prisoner 467 64 who was next door inmate to Nelson Mandela's acclaimed 466 64 prison number. Released after 26 years of incarceration he served as Member of Parliament and is Chairman of the ANC's Integrity Commission and Founder of the June and Andrew Mlangeni Foundation. With the passing of Ahmed Kathrada March 2017 Mlangeni 91 is one of only two Rivonia Trialists still alive with Denis Goldberg. While still at school Andrew Mlangeni joined the Communist Party of South Africa and also the ANC Youth League. These were the organisations that shaped his values. Decades of resourceful activism were to lead to his arrest and life sentence in the Rivonia trial. Mlangeni's lifelong commitment to the struggle for liberation reverberates with other biographies and memoirs of leading figures such as Rusty Bernstein's Memory Against Forgetting and Albie Sachs' We the People. Insights of an Activist Judge. This story of an ANC elder is a well researched historical record overlaid with intensely personal reflections which intersect with the political narrative. Above all it is one man's story set in the maelstrom of the liberation struggle. This biographical project has been developed for and published in conjunction with the June and Andrew Mlangeni Foundation.
