Battle of the Barricades, 2000

On the Barricades of Berlin Brass August Brass, 2020-02-10 The 1848 wave of worker rebellions that swept across Europe struck the German states with the March Revolution The writer August Brass led the successful defense of the barricades in Berlin's Alexanderplatz public square Published in English for the first time On the Barricades of Berlin provides a riveting firsthand account of this uprising Brass testimony begins with the tumultuous events leading up to the revolution the peaceful democratic agitation the demands that were brought to the king and the key actors involved on all sides of the still peaceful yet tense struggle It then follows the events that led to the outbreak of resistance to the forces of order and sheds light on the aftermath of the fighting once the exhausted Prussian army withdrew from the city

On the Barricades, and Off Melvin J. Lasky, The importance of Melvin J Lasky and of the journals he has edited Encounter in London Der Monat in Berlin has been beautifully captured by a young European intellectual Dr Michael Naumann Lasky's work quite apart from its value as a meditation is a testimony of personal courage This is the work of an outsider of a thinker in crazed times who ranks with the few who can apply that 16th century observation of Richard Hooker to themselves with every justification Posterity may know we have not loosely through silence permitted things to pass away as in a dream On The Barricades And Off is an extraordinary collection of writings by Lasky dealing with Revolutionaries and Ideologies with the German Problem and the Russian Question with Travelling and Climates of Opinion But there is nothing eclectic or random about this effort Indeed the essays are stitched together by an impassioned dedication to the open society and no less a universal even handed critique of all closed societies Born in New York City Melvin J Lasky has been co editor of Encounter in London called the most brilliant European periodical since he succeeded Irving Kristol in 1958 He was educated at the City College of New York at the University of Michigan and Columbia University He was the literary editor of the New Leader before serving in World War II as a combat historian in France and Germany After the war he was a foreign correspondent for the New York Times The Reporter Partisan Review and other publications His work as an editor and writer reflects that unusual group of cosmopolitan scholars and men of letters who emerged from the ashes of conflict to help recreate the intellectual climate for democracy in Europe indirectly reestablishing transatlantic critical standards in America
