Sins Of The City The Real Los Angeles Noir:

Sins of the City Jim Heimann, 1999-05-01 New in town huh Look around kidpalm trees movie stars glittering promises of fame and fortune Now look closer and you ll see the real action in the City of Angels goons and thugs backroom dice clubs motel room cheesecake shots crusading cops and a few unlucky saps who didn t make it out alive Sins of the City is a daring photographic compendium of vintage vice in Los Angeles from the 20s to the 50s the true life pictures of a milieu immortalized in the hard bitten novels of Raymond Chandler Walter Mosley and James Ellroy and such films as Criss Cross Double Indemnity Chinatown and LA Confidential Pore over 200 shots of the people places and events that only tabloids such as Hush Hush Confidential and Whisper dared publish Witness the LAPD bust a floating casino see a dapper Bugsy Siegel before living and after deeply deceased and marvel at the criminal excess of marijuana stuffed suitcases Author Jim Heimann has scoured archives and newspaper morgues for prime examples of Southland s inglorious past presenting a compelling history of its notorious corruption Sure it s a tough city but thankfully someone was there to record it all Film Noir and

Los Angeles Sean W. Maher, 2020-08-31 This book combines film studies with urban theory in a spatial exploration of twentieth century Los Angeles Configured through the dark lens of noir the author examines an alternate urban history of Los Angeles forged by the fictional modes of detective fiction film noir and neo noir Dark portrayals of the city are analyzed in Raymond Chandler s crime fiction through to key films like Double Indemnity 1944 and The End of Violence 1997 By employing these fictional elements as the basis for historicising the city s unrivalled urban form the analysis demonstrates an innovative approach to urban historiography Revealing some of the earliest tendencies of postmodern expression in Hollywood cinema this book will be of great relevance to students and researchers working in the fields of film literature cultural and urban studies It will also be of interest to scholars researching histories of Los Angeles and the American noir imagination Los Angeles Underworld Avi Bash and J. Michael Niotta, PhD, 2021 From the blackhanders and bootleggers of the early 20th century to political corruption and the rise and eventual toppling of a Mafia family the history of organized crime in Los Angeles visually chronicled within this work possesses the same level of intrigue glamour and murder as the films that made the City of Angels iconic Los Angeles Underworld showcases an extraordinary collection of rare and previously unpublished images pulled directly from family photo albums and top secret police files Back cover

Encyclopedia of Film Noir Geoff Mayer, Brian McDonnell, 2007-06-30 When viewers think of film noir they often picture actors like Humphrey Bogart playing characters like Sam Spade in The Maltese Falcon the film based on the book by Dashiell Hammett Yet film noir is a genre much richer The authors first examine the debate surrounding the parameters of the genre and the many different ways it is defined They discuss the Noir City its setting and backdrop and also the cultural WWII and institutional the House UnAmerican Activities Committee and the Production Code Administration influences on the subgenres An analysis of the low budget and series film noirs provides information on those cult classics With over 200
