Lawrence Alma Tadema 1836 1912 was arguably the most successful painter of the Victorian era For over sixty years he cleverly gave his audience precisely what they wanted distinctive elaborate paintings of beautiful elegant people in classical settings Victorians in togas as one art critic called them His incredibly detailed reconstruction of ancient Rome with languid men and women posed against white marble in dazzling sunlight provided his public with an acceptable yet often erotic foray into sentimentality escapism and hedonism He acquired fame honors and wealth only to have his preeminence undermined by the changing tastes of a subsequent generation In recent times with the resurgence of interest in Victorian art and decoration Alma Tadema's achievements have been re-evaluated and his paintings are once again widely admired and avidly
