Dance on Its Own Terms Melanie Bales, Karen Eliot, 2013-06-13 Dance on its Own Terms Histories and Methodologies anthologizes a wide range of subjects examined from dance centered methodologies modes of research that are emergent based in relevant systems of movement analysis use primary sources and rely on critical informed observation of movement The chapters emphasize dance history and core disciplinary knowledge in three categories of significant dance activity performance and reconstruction pedagogy and choreographic process and notational and other written forms that analyze and document dance Conceptually each chapter also raises concerns and questions that point to broadly inclusive methodological applications Engaging and insightful Dance on its Own Terms represents a major contribution to research on dance Albion's Dance Karen Eliot, 2016-08-01 Exploring the ballet boom in Britain during WWII this book asks how art and artists thrive during conflict Author Karen Eliot shows how ballet in Britain flourished during war exhibiting a surprising heterogeneity and vibrant populism The book focuses especially on the distinct roles of dance critics male and female dancers producers audiences and choreographers The New Elizabethan Age Irene Morra, Rob Gossedge, 2016-09-30 In the first half of the twentieth century many writers and artists turned to the art and received example of the Elizabethans as a means of articulating an emphatic and anti Victorian modernity By the middle of that century this cultural neo Elizabethanism had become absorbed within a broader mainstream discourse of national identity heritage and cultural performance Taking strength from the Coronation of a new young Queen named Elizabeth the New Elizabethanism of the 1950s heralded a nation that would now see its modern televised monarch preside over an imminently glorious and artistic age This book provides the first in depth investigation of New Elizabethanism and its legacy With contributions from leading cultural practitioners and scholars its essays explore New Elizabethanism as variously manifested in ballet and opera the Coronation broadcast and festivities national historiography and myth the idea of the Young Elizabethan celebrations of air travel and new technologies and the New Shakespeareanism of theatre and television As these essays expose New Elizabethanism was much more than a brief moment of optimistic hyperbole Indeed from modern drama and film to the reinternment of Richard III from the London Olympics to the funeral of Margaret Thatcher it continues to pervade contemporary artistic expression politics and key moments of national pageantry Constant Lambert Stephen Lloyd, 2014 To the economist and ballet enthusiast John Maynard Keynes he was potentially the most brilliant man he'd ever met to Dame Ninette de Valois he was the greatest ballet conductor and advisor this country has ever had to the composer Denis Ap'Ivor he was the greatest most lovable and most entertaining personality of the musical world whilst to the dance critic Clement Crisp he was quite simply a musician of genius Yet sixty years after his death Constant Lambert is little known today As a composer he is remembered for his jazz inspired The Rio Grande but little more and for a man who devoted the greater part of his life to the establishment of English ballet his work is largely unrecognized today This book looks not only at his music but at his journalism his talks for the BBC his championing of jazz in particular Duke Ellington and more privately his longstanding affair with Margot Fonteyn Book jacket

Margot Fonteyn Meredith Daneman, 2005-10-04 Margot Fonteyn began life on the 18th of May 1919 in Reigate Surrey as plain Peggy Hookham She ended it on the 21st of February 1991 as Prima Ballerina Assoluta Dame of the British Empire and the most legendary dancer since Pavlova Meredith Daneman with her own extensive background in ballet tells Fonteyn's story in vivid prose with insight and sensitivity Drawing upon extensive research countless interviews and exclusive access to never before seen letters and diaries including those of Fonteyn's extraordinary and devoted mother Daneman presents firsthand remembrances of Fonteyn from a vast array of people who knew her and danced with her during the course of her lengthy career Margot Fonteyn contains revelations not found in any other account of the ballerina from insights into Fonteyn's private world especially regarding her relationship with her mother the Black Queen to her feelings about her fellow dancers and of course the men in her life including choreographer Frederick Ashton her husband Roberto Arias and her long time dance partner and rumored lover Nureyev
