Religious Transformations in the Early Modern Americas Stephanie Kirk, Sarah Rivett, 2014-11-06 Christianity took root in the Americas during the early modern period when a historically unprecedented migration brought European clergy religious seekers and explorers to the New World Protestant and Catholic settlers undertook the arduous journey for a variety of motivations Some fled corrupt theocracies and sought to reclaim ancient principles and Christian ideals in a remote unsettled territory Others intended to glorify their home nations and churches by bringing new lands and subjects under the rule of their kings Many imagined the indigenous peoples they encountered as savages awaiting the salvific force of Christ Whether by overtly challenging European religious authority and traditions or by adapting to unforeseen hardship and resistance these envoys reshaped faith liturgy and ecclesiology and fundamentally transformed the practice and theology of Christianity Religious Transformations in the Early Modern Americas explores the impact of colonial encounters in the Atlantic world on the history of Christianity Essays from across disciplines examine religious history from a spatial perspective tracing geographical movements and population dispersals as they were shaped by the millennial designs and evangelizing impulses of European empires At the same time religion provides a provocative lens through which to view patterns of social restriction exclusion and tension as well as those of acculturation accommodation and resistance in a comparative colonial context Through nuanced attention to the particularities of faith especially Anglo Protestant settlements in North America and the Ibero Catholic missions in Latin America Religious Transformations in the Early Modern Americas illuminates the complexity and variety of the colonial world as it transformed a range of Christian beliefs Contributors Ralph Bauer David A Boruchoff Matt Cohen Sir John Elliot Carmen Fernandez Salvador J nia Ferreira Furtado Sandra M Gustafson David D Hall Stephanie Kirk Asunci n Lavrin Sarah Rivett Teresa Toulouse
