The Artist By Himself Self Portraits From Youth To Old Age

Paul J. Nahin

The Artist By Himself Self Portraits From Youth To Old Age:

The Artist by Himself Joan Kinneir, 1980 Self portraits are arranged chronologically by the age of the artist when the drawing was made and accompanied by writings indicating the artist's thoughts at that time The Artist by Himself Joan Kinneir, 1980 Some Poets, Artists & 'A Reference for Mellors' Anthony Powell, 2005 Drawn from over four decades of regular reviews for the Daily Telegraph as well as pieces for Apollo Punch and Encounter this is a collection of Anthony Powell's critical writings Self-portrait in the Age of Photography Erika Billeter, 1986 The Self-Portrait: A Cultural History James Hall, 2016-02-16 Hall provides a lively cultural interpretation of the genre from the Middle Ages to today Rather than provide a series of greatest hits he is more concerned with the reasons why artists create self portraits The Weekly Standard The self portrait may be the visual genre most identified with our confessional era but modern artists are far from the first to have explored its power and potential In this broad cultural survey of the genre art historian and critic James Hall brilliantly maps the history of self portraiture from the earliest myths of Narcissus and the Christian tradition of bearing witness to the prolific self image making of today's contemporary artists Hall's intelligent and vivid account shows how artists' depictions of themselves have been part of a continuing tradition that reaches back centuries Along the way he reveals the importance of the medieval mirror craze the explosion of the genre during the Renaissance the confessional self portraits of Titian and Michelangelo the biographical role of serial self portraits by artists such as Courbet and van Gogh themes of sex and genius in works by Munch Bonnard and Modersohn Becker and the latest developments of the genre in the era of globalization Comprehensive and beautifully illustrated the book features the work of a wide range of artists including Alberti Caravaggio Dürer Emin Gauguin Giotto Goya Kahlo Koons Magritte Mantegna Picasso Raphael Rembrandt and Warhol Time Machines Paul J. Nahin, 2001-04-20 This book explores the idea of time travel from the first account in English literature to the latest theories of physicists such as Kip Thorne and Igor Novikov This very readable work covers a variety of topics including the history of time travel in fiction the fundamental scientific concepts of time spacetime and the fourth dimension the speculations of Einstein Richard Feynman Kurt Gödel and others time travel paradoxes and much more She Who Imagines Laurie Cassidy, Maureen H. O'Connell, 2012-11-01 The idea and ideal of beauty has been used to oppress women of different ages body types skin color and physical ability The theoretical discussion of aesthetics has also been conditioned by these same dynamics of power and oppression In She Who Imagines a diverse set of scholars challenges the exclusion and false definitions while constructing capacious ideas that discover beauty in unexpected places In these essays the authors draw on a variety of arts media painting photography portraiture craftwork poetry and hip hop music thereby joining beauty to truth and in a richly defining way to the practice of justice In a variety of ways all the essays link women's definitions of beauty with experiences of suffering and hence with the yearning for justice All clearly prize resistance to degradation as an essential element of thought Cézanne Steven Platzman, 2001 Platzman's accessible and richly illustrated book examines the stylistic development of Czanne s self portraits in an effort to understand how the artist saw himself and others 111 b w 82 color illustrations True Relations G. Thomas Couser, Joseph Fichtelberg, 1998-01-21

The essays in this collection explore new directions in autobiography studies Examining a wide range of texts from narratives of suicide survivors cross dressers and people with HIV AIDS to self representations in the visual arts the collection demonstrates how writers have used the postmodern experience fragmentation to forge new kinds of identities Postmodern selves the essayists argue are relational selves constructed from the acute need to find identity through collaboration with others Postmodern autobiography emerges as a search amid shocks to the stable self for wider patterns of significance Of interest to researchers and scholars in autobiography world literature and psychology Technologies of the Self-Portrait Gabriella Giannachi, 2022-07-29 This book demonstrates how artists have radically revisited the genre of the self portrait by using a range of technologies and media that mark different phases in what can be described as a history of self or selves production Gabriella Giannachi shows how artists constructed their presence subjectivity and personhood by using a range of technologies and media including mirrors photography sculpture video virtual reality and social media to produce an increasingly fluid multiple and social representation of their self This interdisciplinary book draws from art history performance studies visual culture new media theory philosophy computer science and neuroscience to offer a radical new reading of the genre
