The As World:

Reimagining Adult Education as World Building Aliki Nicolaidis,Ahreum Lim,Neal Herr,Trisha Barefield,2024-03-18 Reimagining Adult Education as World Building offers a new way of thinking about adult education by re envisaging how adult education works It explores how the process of world building or the invention of a new world or a set of concepts can be translated into actual and feasible action when turning towards complex real life problems Cultivating contexts where adult educators can become change agents who recognize that the individual and community are intricately entangled demands that educators grow new capacities make new tools develop thicker networks and cultivate intentional links amongst each other to foster ecologies of transformation This book shows how educators can create an ecology or environment for transformative thinking where students can learn to collaborate and use world building tools to create new responses to current issues It begins by explaining the philosophical underpinnings of world building and the tools that translate pragmatic imagination into scaffolds for individual and collective capacity building It also illustrates how the worldbuilding protocol makes a difference in adult learning and how this pedagogical tool introduces the ecological approach to adult education Each chapter explores a practical case study showing how learners have applied worldbuilding tools to complex challenges Showing how to apply the world building protocol in a classroom setting this edited collection will be valuable to Adult Education scholars researchers practitioners and learning facilitators Philosophy as World Literature Jeffrey R. Di Leo,2020-11-26 What does it mean to consider philosophy as a species of not just literature but world literature The authors in this collection explore philosophy through the lens of the worlding of literature that is how philosophy is connected and reconnected through global literary networks that cross borders mix stories and speak in translation and dialect Historically much of the world s most influential philosophy from Plato s dialogues and Augustine s confessions to Nietzsche s aphorisms and Sartre s plays was a form of literature as well as by extension a form of world literature Philosophy as World Literature offers a variety of accounts of how the worlding of literature problematizes the national categorizing of philosophy and brings new meanings and challenges to the discussion of intersections between philosophy and literature Turkish Literature as World Literature Burcu Alkan,Çimen Günay-Erkol,2020-12-10 Essays covering a broad range of genres and ranging from the late Ottoman era to contemporary literature open the debate on the place of Turkish literature in the globalized literary world Explorations of the multilingual cosmopolitanism of the Ottoman literary scene are complemented by examples of cross generational intertextual encounters The renowned poet N zım Hikmet is studied from a variety of angles while contemporary and popular writers such as Orhan Pamuk and Elif Safak are contextualized Turkish Literature as World Literature not only fills a significant lacuna in world literary studies but also draws a composite historical political and cultural portrait of Turkey in its relations with the broader world Francophone Literature as World Literature Christian Moraru,Nicole Simek,Bertrand Westphal,2020-06-25 Francophone Literature as

World Literature examines French language works from a range of global traditions and shows how these literary practices draw individuals communities and their cultures and idioms into a planetary web of tension and cross fertilization The Francophone corpus under scrutiny here comes about in the evolving markedly relational context provided by these processes and their developments during and after the French empire The 15 chapters of this collection delve into key aspects moments and sites of the literature flourishing throughout the francosphere after World War II and especially since the 1980s from the French Hexagon to the Caribbean and India and from Quebec to the Maghreb and Romania Understood and practiced as World Literature Francophone literature claims with particular force in the wake of the literature monde debate its place in a more democratic world republic of letters where writers critics publishers and audiences are no longer beholden to traditional centers of cultural authority

Brazilian Literature as World Literature Eduardo F.

Coutinho,2018-02-22 Brazilian Literature as World Literature is not only an introduction to Brazilian literature but also a study of the connections between Brazil's literary production and that of the rest of the world particularly European and North American literatures It highlights the tension that has always existed in Brazilian literature between the imitation of European models and forms and a yearning for a tradition of its own as well as the attempts by modernist writers to propose possible solutions such as aesthetic cannibalism to overcome this tension

Feminism as World Literature Robin Truth

Goodman,2022-11-03 The conventional lineage of World Literature starts with Goethe and moves through Marx Said Moretti and Damrosch among others What if there is another way to trace the lineage starting with Simone de Beauvoir and moving through Hannah Arendt Assia Djebar Octavia Butler Donna Haraway Karen Barad and Gayatri Spivak What ideas and issues get left out of the current foundations that have institutionalized World Literature and what can be added challenged or changed with this tweaking of the referential terminology Feminism as World Literature redefines the thematic and theoretical contents of World Literature in feminist terms as well as rethinking feminist terms analyses frameworks and concepts in a World Literature context Other ideas built into World Literature and its criticism are viewed here by feminist framings including the environment technology immigration translation work race governance image sound religion affect violence media future and history The authors recognize genres strategies and themes of World Literature that demonstrate feminism as integral to the world making gestures of literary form and production In other words this volume looks to readings and modes of reading that expose how the historical worldliness of texts allows for feminist interventions that might not sit clearly or comfortably on the surfaces

Pacific Literatures as World Literature Hsinya Huang, Chia-hua Yvonne

Lin,2023-05-04 Pacific Literatures as World Literature is a conjuration of trans Pacific poets and writers whose work enacts forces of becoming oceanic and suggests a different mode of understanding viewing and belonging to the world The Pacific past and present remains uneasily amenable to territorial demarcations of national or marine sovereignty At the same time as a planetary element necessary to sustaining life and well being the Pacific could become the means to envisioning ecological solidarity if compellingly framed in terms that elicit consent and inspire an imagination of co belonging and care The Pacific can signify a bioregional site of coalitional promise as much as a danger zone of antagonistic peril With ground breaking writings from authors based in North America Japan Taiwan Korea Hawaii and Guam and new modes of research including multispecies ethnography and practice ecopoetics and indigenous cosmopolitics authors explore the socio political significance of the Pacific and contribute to the development of a collective effort of comparative Pacific studies covering a refreshingly broad ethnographically grounded range of research themes This volume aims to decenter continental land poetics as such via long standing transnational Pacific ties re worlding Pacific literature as world literature Arab

Modernism as World Cinema Peter Limbrick, 2020-03-10 Arab Modernism as World Cinema explores the radically beautiful films of Moroccan filmmaker Moumen Smihi demonstrating the importance of Moroccan and Arab film cultures in histories of world cinema Addressing the legacy of the Nahda or Arab Renaissance of the nineteenth and early twentieth century when Arab writers and artists reenergized Arab culture by engaging with other languages and societies Peter Limbrick argues that Smihi s films take up the spirit of the Nahda for a new age Examining Smihi s oeuvre which enacts an exchange of images and ideas between Arab and non Arab cultures Limbrick rethinks the relation of Arab cinema to modernism and further engages debates about the use of modernist forms by filmmakers in the Global South This original study offers new routes for thinking about world cinema and modernism in the Middle East and North Africa and about Arab cinema in the world

Film as World Literature Robin Truth Goodman, 2025-10-16 Redefines the theoretical and thematic contents of world literature by considering it in connection with film What gets lost when we understand film as essentially different from literature What gets lost when we think them essentially the same Does the constructed difference between literature and film also create social and political exclusions exclusions that may exacerbate class struggle or exclusions of certain ways of thinking the future as different Film as World Literature seeks to undo disciplines and disciplinarity the division between film and literature indeed conceals the possibilities of world by bracketing out undisciplined parts Contributors apply ideas of translatability and untranslatability not just as a linguistic exercise of transfers between language groups cultures and national origins but also as an approach to media and transfers between media Is film a visual acknowledgement that literary language is by definition multilingual that is is film a place where political conflicts as Bakhtin observed can be rendered visible Chapters discuss film s relation to world literature not only by considering literary adaptations across nations regions languages ideologies and contexts but also by exploring film s intersections with literary theory narrative history genre and experimentation Film as World Literature calls for recognition that while the category of world demands a radical defense in the face of risks to democracy the world that literature and film combined bring forth must interrogate the conditions for a future politics of interaction engagement belonging and difference Central American Literatures as World Literature Sophie Esch, 2023-10-05 Challenging the notion that Central American literature is a marginal space within Latin American literary and world literary production this collection positions and discusses Central American literature within the recently revived debates on world literature This groundbreaking volume draws on new scholarship on global transnational postcolonial translational and sociological perspectives on the region s literature expanding and challenging these debates by focusing on the heterogenous literatures of Central America and its diasporas Contributors discuss poems testimonios novels and short stories in relation to center periphery cosmopolitan and Internationalist paradigms Central American Literatures as World Literature explores the multiple ways in which Central American literature goes beyond or against the confines of the nation state especially through the indigenous Black and migrant voices
