The Australian Of The Road:

Official Year Book of Australia Australian Bureau of Statistics, 1975 Year Book Australia, 1990 No. 73 Australian Bureau of Statistics, Yearbook Australia , Transport Law in Australia John Livermore, 2023-08-20 John Livermore's succinct monograph provides a useful overview of Australian transport law as of July 2017. This is a readable and useful publication which provides a good summary of Australian transport law. Simon Baughen, Professor of Shipping Law, Swansea University, Artho Cyraith Llongau. Extract from full review of the 3rd edition in Journal of International Maritime Law January 2020. Transport Law in Australia is a clear and well-researched resource covering all modes of transport. It should be the first port of call for logistic professionals, transport lawyers, and students when seeking to understand the legalities of transport in Australia. Russell Wiese, Director, CTG Law. This updated edition of Transport Law in Australia describes the main sources of transport law, jurisdiction, and courts, state immunity, and the legal role of transport intermediaries. The scope of the book is broad in that it encompasses maritime, road, rail, air, and multimodal transport law. Almost half the book is devoted to maritime and shipping law, which for an island nation with over 95% of its international trade carried by sea is as important as it is unsurprising. Whilst works of this nature have the potential to be a dry read, in this case the author has taken an approach which makes the book eminently readable and usable. The text is well supported by in-depth research and enhanced with comprehensive referencing, footnotes, tables of cases and statutes, as well as a selected bibliography. With Australian society and the economy vitally dependent on all modes of transport, this book will be a valuable addition for many in the transport community. This includes transport operators, shippers, and freight forwarders, transport regulators, and lawyers, as well as academics, researchers, and students engaged in the study of transport. The author's practical and masterful approach to the subject should go a long way to ensuring the success of Transport Law in Australia, as well as being a valuable addition to the body of literature on this important topic. Barrie Lewarn, Professor, Australian Maritime College, National Centre for Ports and Shipping, University of Tasmania. Review of the 2nd edition of Transport Law in Australia Australian National Bibliography , 1978 Official Year Book of Australia No. 61, 1975 , 1975 Year Book Australia, 1982 No. 66 , 2003

Directory of World Cinema: Australia and New Zealand 2 Ben Goldsmith, Mark David Ryan, Geoff Lealand, 2015-04-01. Building on and bringing up to date the material presented in the first instalment of Directory of World Cinema: Australia and New Zealand, this volume continues the exploration of the cinema produced in Australia and New Zealand since the beginning of the twentieth century. Among the additions to this volume are in-depth treatments of the locations that feature prominently in the country's cinema. Essays by leading critics and film scholars consider the significance of the outback and the beach in films which are evoked as a liminal space in Long Weekend and a symbol of death in Heaven's Burning among other films. Other contributions turn the spotlight on previously unexplored genres and key filmmakers including Jane Campion, Rolf de Heer, Charles Chauvel, and Gillian Armstrong. Accompanying the critical essays in this volume are more than one hundred and fifty new film reviews complemented by film stills and significantly expanded references for further study From The Piano to Crocodile Dundee Directory of World Cinema Australia and New Zealand 2 completes this comprehensive treatment of a consistently fascinating national cinema Year Book Australia No. 76 - 1994
