The Austrian Achievement 1700 18:

The Austrian Achievement, 1700-1800 Ernst Wangermann, 1973 The 17th and 18th Centuries Frank N. Magill, 2013-09-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography

Speculative Freemasonry and the Enlightenment R. William Weisberger, 2017-10-13 Freemasonry began with stonemasons in the Middle Ages experiencing the decline of cathedral building Some guilds invited honorary memberships to boost their numbers These usually highly educated new members practiced symbolic or speculative Freemasonry The new Masonic lodges and learned societies offered their growing numbers of Protestant Catholic and Jewish members an understanding of deism Newtonian science and representative government and of literature and the fine arts This work describes how Masons on both sides of the Atlantic were mostly either enlighteners political reformers or moderate revolutionaries They offered minimal support to radical revolutionary ideas and leaders

Austria's Wars of Emergence, 1683-1797 Michael Hochedlinger, 2015-12-22 The Habsburg Monarchy has received much historiographical attention since 1945 Yet the military aspects of Austria's emergence as a European great power in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries have remained obscure This book shows that force of arms and the instruments of the early modern state were just as important as its marriage policy in creating and holding together the Habsburg Monarchy Drawing on an impressive up to date bibliography as well as on original archival research this survey is the first to put Vienna's military back at the centre stage of early modern Austrian history

The Port Jews of Habsburg Trieste: Absolutist Politics and Enlightenment Culture Lois C. Dubin, 2023-10-03 Winner of the 2000 Barbara Jelavich Prize in Habsburg Russian or Ottoman history American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies and finalist in the 1999 National Jewish Book Awards History category Dubin's brilliant study of the cosmopolitan entrepôt of goods and peoples that was Trieste breaks new ground in our understanding of Jewish life in the Old Regime Europe It demonstrates with exacting detail the extensive privileges such port Jews enjoyed and the effect enlightened absolutism and emancipation politics exercised upon them while skillfully portraying the Jews' political and cultural responses It is a classic study in modern Jewish history David Sorkin University of Wisconsin Madison Lois C Dubin has produced a solid and original monograph that explores the economic legal political and cultural changes experienced by Trieste's Jewish community within the context of the reform policy of the Austrian enlightened absolutists and Enlightenment ideology Dubin has written an outstanding work on Trieste's Jews a very valuable study that I recommend to any reader interested in Jewish and Habsburg history as well as the Enlightenment The American Historical Review A valuable and carefully researched book Dubin's book is an important contribution not only to the study of Habsburg Jewry but also to our understanding of eighteenth century absolutism The Journal of Modern History The book is replete with keen insights into the experiences of European Jews during the initial phases of the transition from the world of corporate orders to modern class society Dubin's discussion of the dynamics of Haskalah in Trieste is a sophisticated and nuanced analysis of one of the crucial chapters in the modernization of European Jewry Journal of Urban History With this superb book Lois C Dubin has successfully and elegantly slain the two headed dragon of modern Jewish historiography nationalism and Germanocentrism She has also provided Habsburg historians with a much needed treatment of the complex interaction between state building reforming absolutism and the Jews one of several significant national minorities within the heterogeneous empire The essential economic role played by Triestine Jewry once Charles VI declared Trieste a free port in 1719 made them indispensable to the Habsburg state This indispensability itself is a critical marker in the shift between medieval and early modern Jewish history What had been a liability Jewish predominance in middle class professions particularly in trade became an asset with the rise of mercantilism and a state centralized economy Coupled with the distinctive culture of Italian Jews toleration shaped the ways in which Triestine Jews responded to Josephinian reforms the Jewish Enlightenment in Berlin challenges to Jewish marriage and divorce law educational changes and the dissolution of the ghetto all of which Dubin explores with nuance and clarity The Port Jews of Habsburg Trieste employs source material in all the essential languages German Hebrew and Italian and Dubin is equally at home analyzing Viennese and Triestine archival material and rare Hebrew periodical literature published in Vienna and Berlin Her assured use of such diverse materials is also welcome because it restores historical agency to the Jewish population which is at the center of her study The Port Jews of Habsburg Trieste will undoubtedly remain the classic treatment of this fascinating city and of Habsburg state building in one of its most important ports Nancy Sinkoff H Net Dubin has made here an important contribution that belongs in every library that addresses Judaism and the modern world German Studies Review Un travail magistral Annales Histoire Sciences Sociales The Austrian Enlightenment and Its Aftermath Ritchie Robertson, Edward Timms, 1991 Freedom of Speech Elizabeth Powers, 2011-11-10 The essays in this volume portray the public debates concerning freedom of speech in the 18th century in France and Britain as well as Austria Denmark Russia and Spain and its American territories The economic integration of Europe and its offshoots over the past three cen Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1973 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953 1955 Embodiments of Power Gary B. Cohen, Franz A. J. Szabo, 2008-07-01 The period of the baroque late sixteenth to mid eighteenth centuries saw extensive reconfiguration of European cities and their public spaces Yet this transformation cannot be limited merely to signifying a style of art architecture and decor Rather the dynamism emotionality and potential for grandeur that were inherent in the baroque style developed in close interaction with the need and desire of post Reformation Europeans to find visual expression for the new political confessional and societal realities Highly illustrated this volume examines these complex interrelationships among architecture and art power religion and society from a wide range of viewpoints and localities From Krakow to Madrid and from Naples to Dresden cities were reconfigured visually as well as politically and socially Power in both its political and architectural guises had to be negotiated among constituents ranging from monarchs and high churchmen to ordinary citizens Within this process both rulers and ruled were transformed Europe left behind the last vestiges of the medieval and arrived on the threshold of the modern

Toleration in Enlightenment Europe Ole Peter Grell, Roy Porter, 2000 This 1999 book is a systematic pan European survey of the theory practice and very real limits to toleration in eighteenth century Europe
