Conceptualizing/Re-conceptualizing Africa Maghan Keita, 2021-10-11 Africa is a legitimizing factor in the world some might argue because of the weakness of its position in the world others might say because of the realization on the part of some African leaders that there are strengths inherent to their states positions that can be tapped Africa's place in the world is being re thought and re shaped And that is exactly what this book is about the authors invite and incite the reader to a much closer and nuanced reading of Africa and its history and the way in which that history over time and space allows for a re conceptualization of Africa's role and place in the world The authors evoke W E B Du Bois on the invention of identity in the modern world In that light these works remind us as Du Bois would that the current invention of Africa is indeed a modern one an identity configured in numerous ways with and without our interventions Contributions by Lamont de Haven King State and Ethnicity in Nigeria Jesse Benjamin Nubians and Nabateans Jeremy Prestholdt Portuguese on the Swahili Coast Thomas Ricks Slaves in Shi i Iran AD 1500 1900 Launay Robert Late Seventeenth Century Narratives of Travel to Asia and Richard J Payne and Cassandra Veney Taiwan and Africa

Mandated Landscape Roza El-Eini, 2004-11-23 In this ground breaking authoritative study a highly documented and incisive analysis is made of the galvanising changes wrought to the people and landscape of British Mandated Palestine 1929 1948 Using a comprehensive and interdisciplinary approach the book's award winning author examines how the British imposed their rule dominated by the clashing dualities of their Mandate obligations towards the Arabs and the Jews and their own interests The rulers Empire wide conceptions of the White man's burden and preconceptions of the Holy Land were potent forces of change influencing their policies Lucidly written Mandated Landscape is also a rich source of information supported by numerous maps tables and illustrations and has 66 appendices a considerable bibliography and extensive index With a theoretical and historical backdrop the ramifications of British rule are highlighted in their impact on town planning agriculture forestry land the partition plans and a case study presenting discussions on such issues as development ecological shock law and the controversial division of village lands as the British operated in a politically turbulent climate often within their own administration This book is a major contribution to research on British Palestine and will interest those in Middle East history geography development and colonial postcolonial studies Let Shepherding Endure Gideon M. Kressel, 2012-02-01 Examining the crucial problems confronting present day livestock breeders principally Bedouin and Jews in Israel but also pastoral nomads in neighboring Middle Eastern countries Let Shepherding Endure proposes new ways for these governments to enhance and sustain the long term future development of shepherding communities Adopting a broad historical and anthropological perspective on the topic and assessing various pastoral relief programs Kressel proposes an alternative program whereby the region's states would promote a brand of pastoralism that preserves rangeland herding while keeping in step with the contemporary cultural and political context This truly visionary set of recommendations would have several dividends especially for the Bedouin their cultural legacy in danger of obsolescence would be preserved while at the same time enhancing both their pastoral skills and ability to secure a livelihood from herding The Arid Frontier Hendrik J. Bruins, Harvey Lithwick, 2012-12-06 The arid frontier has been a challenge for humanity from time immemorial Drylands cover more than one third of the global land surface distributed over Africa Asia Australia America and Southern Europe Disasters may develop as a result of complex interactions between drought desertification and society Therefore proactive planning and interactive management including disaster coping strategies are essential in dealing with arid frontier development This book presents a conceptual framework with case studies in dryland development and management The option of a rational and ethical discourse for development that is beneficial for both the environment and society is emphasized avoiding extreme environmentalism and human destructionism combating both desertification and human livelihood insecurity Such development has to be based on appropriate ethics legislation policy proactive planning and interactive management Excellent scholars address these issues focusing on the principal interactions between people and dryland environments in terms of drought food land water renewable energy and housing Audience This volume will be of great value to all those interested in Dryland Development and Management professionals and policy makers in governmental international and non governmental organizations NGOs as well as researchers lecturers and students in Geography Environmental Management Regional Studies Development Anthropology Hazard and Disaster Management Agriculture and Pastoralism Land and Water Use African Studies and Renewable Energy Resources Knowledge-Driven Governance Lihua Yang, 2018-11-19 This book explores a new model for addressing the central issue of environmental and other collective actions An alternative to the classical models central authority privatization and self governance it has provisionally been named expert and scholar based or knowledge driven governance The book also identifies seven working rules or design principles for successful knowledge driven governance and argues that the more strictly these rules are abided by the more successful this model of governance becomes Lastly it demonstrates that in addition to Lindblom's observed intellectually guided society and preference guided volition guided society there may be the possibility of a knowledge driven society in which knowledge or intellect plays a greater role The results obtained are supplemented by numerical calculations presented as tables and figures This book is intended for graduate students lecturers and researchers working in environmental management environmental science and engineering sustainable development collective action and public administration New Scientist ,1990 The History of Natural History Gavin D. R. Bridson,2008 With over 5300 added references this revised and updated edition is an essential source of information for scientists researchers and enthusiastic amateurs The History of Natural History is one of those key works that should be kept in easy reach of anyone interested in the study of natural history in all its branches Shofar ,1995 Bibliography of Agriculture ,1996
