The Art Of Preaching Cistercian Fathers Series:

The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology Stephen F. Brown, Juan Carlos Flores, 2010-03-23 The Middle Ages is often viewed as a period of low intellectual achievement The name itself refers to the time between the high philosophical and literary accomplishments of the Greco Roman world and the technological advances that were achieved and philosophical and theological alternatives that were formulated in the modern world that followed However having produced such great philosophers as Anselm Peter Abelard John Duns Scotus William of Ockham Peter Lombard and the towering Thomas Aquinas it hardly seems fair to label the medieval period as such Examining the influence of ancient Greek philosophy as well as of the Arabian and Hebrew scholars who transmitted it The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology presents the philosophy of the Christian West from the 9th to the early 17th century This is accomplished through a chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on the philosophers concepts issues institutions and events making this an important reference for the study of the progression of human thought

A History of Preaching Volume 1 Rev. O.C. Edwards JR., 2016-04-25 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church's ministry of proclamation. Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures, Edwards paints a detailed, compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel. Pastors, scholars, and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching. Volume 1 contains Edwards's magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching's development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century's discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative. Along the way, the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time: Origen, Chrysostom, Augustine, Bernard, Aquinas, Luther, Calvin, Wesley, Edwards, Rauschenbusch, Barth—all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention. Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands, preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew. Volume 2, available separately as 9781501833786, contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries. The author has written an introduction to each selection, placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution. Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1's narrative history. Ecumenical in scope, fair-minded in presentation, appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop, deliver, and listen to a sermon, A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel. This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years, says Ann K. Riggs, who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission. Author Edwards, former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary, is co-moderator of the commission, which studies church uniting and church dividing issues. A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches; we all participate in this field, says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65, Winter 2004/2005, published by the National Council of Churches.

The Cistercian Reform and the Art of the Book in Twelfth-Century France Diane Reilly, 2025-10-01. This book is a study of the programmatic oral performance of the written word and its impact on art and text. Communal singing and reading of the Latin texts that formed the core of Christian ritual and belief consumed many hours of the Benedictine monk's day. These texts, read and sung out loud, memorized and copied into manuscripts, were often illustrated by the very same monks who participated in the choir liturgy. The meaning of these illustrations sometimes only becomes clear when they are read in the context of the texts these monks heard read. The earliest manuscripts of the Cistercians, copied and illuminated at the same time that the new monastery's liturgy was being reformed, demonstrate the transformation of aural experience to visual and textual legacy.

Women

Preaching Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2009-08-01 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women's preaching Kim makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics as it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection from other women preachers as well as herself. It is the author's hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman's perspective. Kim's ground-breaking book is the first comprehensive narrative of women preachers from the Second Testament to the Second Millennium. Through Kim's eyes we see women as a constant and forceful if often subversive presence in Christian preaching. After focusing on the medieval period, the Reformation and the early twentieth century, the author brings her autobiography close to the surface as she leads us to consider women and the politics of God in the colonial and post-colonial eras with a special focus on Asia. The book climaxes with a call to envision preaching as partnership with God that facilitates partnership in the church and world in the service of liberation. Ronald J. Allen, Nettie Sweeney and Hugh Th. Miller, Professor of Preaching and New Testament, Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis, Indiana. Kim's exciting exploration of the history of women preachers illuminates the remarkable perseverance of God and the women who partner with God to bring words of peace and transformation to the world. Those churches that continue to deny women's preaching do more than simply perpetuate an inequality. They also quench the Spirit who yearns to transform us co-workers in the liberative work of God. Cliff Guthrie, Associate Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Studies, Bangor Theological Seminary, Bangor, Maine.

English works of John Fisher, Bishop of Rochester (1469-1535), Historical Dictionary of Medieval Philosophy and Theology Stephen F. Brown, Juan Carlos Flores, 2018-08-10 This second edition concentrates on various philosophers and theologians from the medieval Arabian, Jewish and Christian worlds. It principally centers on authors such as Abumashar Saadia Gaon and Alcuin from the eighth century and follows the intellectual developments of the three traditions up to the fifteenth century. Ibn Khaldun, Hasdai Crescas and Marsilio Ficino. The spiritual journeys presuppose earlier human sources such as the philosophy of Plato, Aristotle, Plotinus and Porphyry and various Stoic authors, the revealed teachings of the Jewish Law, the Koran and the Christian Bible. The Fathers of the Church such as St. Augustine and Gregory the Great provided examples of theology in their attempts to reconcile revealed truth and man's philosophical knowledge and deserve attention as pre-medieval contributors to medieval intellectual life. Avicenna and Averroes, Maimonides and Gersonides, St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Bonaventure stand out in the three traditions as special medieval contributors who deserve more attention. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Medieval Philosophy and Theology contains a chronology, an introduction, appendixes and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 300 cross-referenced entries on important persons, events and concepts that shaped medieval philosophy and theology. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers and anyone wanting to know more about medieval philosophy and theology.

A Legacy of Preaching, Volume

One---Apostles to the Revivalists Zondervan, 2018-11-13 A Legacy of Preaching Volume One Apostles to the Revivalists explores the history and development of preaching through a biographical and theological examination of its most important preachers. Instead of teaching the history of preaching from the perspective of movements and eras, each contributor tells the story of a particular preacher in history, allowing the preachers from the past to come alive and instruct us through their lives, theologies, and methods of preaching. Each chapter introduces readers to a key figure in the history of preaching, followed by an analysis of the theological views that shaped their preaching, their methodology of sermon preparation and delivery, and an appraisal of the significant contributions they have made to the history of preaching. This diverse collection of familiar and lesser-known individuals provides a detailed and fascinating look at what it has meant to communicate the gospel over the past two thousand years. By looking at how the gospel has been communicated over time and across different cultures, pastors, scholars, and homiletics students can enrich their own understanding and practice of preaching for application today. Volume One covers the period from the apostles to the revivalists and profiles thirty preachers, including Paul by Eric Rowe, Peter by David R. Beck, Melito of Sardis by Paul A. Hartog, Origen of Alexandria by Stephen O. Presley, Ephrem the Syrian by Jonathan J. Armstrong, Basil of Caesarea by Jonathan Morgan, John Chrysostom by Paul A. Hartog, Augustine of Hippo by Edward L. Smither, Gregory the Great by W. Brian Shelton, Bernard of Clairvaux by Elizabeth Hoare, Francis of Assisi by Timothy D. Holder, Saint Bonaventure by G. R. Evans, Meister Eckhart by Daniel Farca, Johannes Tauler by Byard Bennett, John Huss by Mark A. Howell, Girolamo Savonarola by W. Brian Shelton, Martin Luther by Robert Kolb, Ulrich Zwingli by Kevin L. King, Balthasar Hubmaier by Corneliu C. Simu, William Tyndale by Scott A. Wenig, John Calvin by Anthony N. S. Lane, William Perkins by Dwayne Milioni, Richard Baxter by Simon Vibert, John Owen by Henry M. Knapp, John Bunyan by Larry Steven McDonald, Matthew Henry by William C. Watson, and W. Ross Hastings. Francis F. Nelson by Martin I. Klauber, Jonathan Edwards by Gerald R. McDermott, John Wesley by Michael Pasquarello III, George Whitefield by Bill Curtis, and Timothy McKnight. Volume Two, available separately, covers the period from the Enlightenment to the present day and profiles thirty-one preachers, including Charles Haddon Spurgeon, D. L. Moody, Billy Sunday, Karl Barth, D. Martyn Lloyd Jones, John Stott, Harry Emerson Fosdick, Martin Luther King Jr., Billy Graham, and more.

English Works of John Fisher, Bishop of Rochester John Fisher, 2002-02-21 Bishop John Fisher was a scholar and theologian of European reputation, famous as a preacher and author of the first sermon sequence to be printed in English. He was beheaded for his opposition to Henry VIII's divorce from Catherine of Aragon and pursued after his death by the enmity of the king, who suppressed his books and sought to blacken his name. The figure of John Fisher links the age of late medieval piety with the growth of Christian humanism and the new learning, which, as a friend of Erasmus, he introduced as chancellor of Cambridge University. His English writings are distinctive for their structured elegance and clarity. This new edition contains sermons written during the last fifteen years of Fisher's life, including a previously unpublished eyewitness account of the Field of Cloth of Gold celebrations and devotional works composed while he was a prisoner in the Tower of London
