B. Yates,2015-06-16 Excerpt from The Autobiography of a Race Horse Yesterday the old dog went out but he did not come back again I wonder why And this morning when I went out to play in the paddock that adjoins my stall I noticed a little mound of fresh turned earth over in the corner It got me thinking You see he was a pretty old dog as dogs went older than most of them because day before yesterday he had seen sixteen winters and summers And though in the life of a man this would not amount to so much it is more than the allotted span for a dog Happy was an English setter and when I look back it seems only yesterday since he was a little round white cotton ball always getting in the way of my hoofs or trying to climb up my hind leg and tie my tail into a bow knot About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Gift of the Grass John Trotwood Moore,1911 The Autobiography of P.T. Barnum Phineas Taylor Barnum,1855 The Autobiography of a Racehorse Clare Elstob,Agnese de Llana,1923 Saving Baby Lawrence Lindner,Jo Anne Normile,2015-04-24 Jo Anne Normile was not supposed to keep the foal an exuberant Thoroughbred but she fell in love with the young horse who had literally been born into her arms The breeder finally said she could keep the colt whom she nicknamed Baby but only if she raced him It was difficult to take Baby away from the safety of his pasture but Normile had made a promise She experienced a thrill every time Baby sprinted around the track but for every Seabiscuit there are are tens of thousands of racehorses whose lives end in pain and despair because of the indifference and corruption that run rampant through the world of horse racing Normile knew none of this Not until an accident on a poorly maintained track That s when everything changed That s when Normile founded the most successful horse rescue in the country an organization that would go on to save more horses than anyone else ever had Saving Baby is Jo Anne Normile s story of perseverance and passion A heartbreaking and ultimately life affirming book it testifies to the transcending power of hope and the unshakable bonds of love PRAISE FOR SAVING BABY First class storytelling Action and emotion equally drive this compelling tale A touching narrative that transcends its subject matter Kirkus Reviews starred review An engaging memoir that is a must read for animal lovers Publisher s Weekly The Autobiography of Lynn Lee Woodruff Nora the odds An outsider in the privileged world of racing she has nevertheless turned herself into one of the most successful trainers in Britain today And as a woman in a male dominated profession she has been forced to work doubly hard for her achievements Jenny s love of horses has dominated her life Born on a modest Leicestershire farm without gas electricity or running water she joined a racing yard at the age of fifteen While still in her teens she married jockey Richard Pitman and together they set up a stable Before long Jenny became one of the very first women to be granted a professional licence to train horses Despite the subsequent break up of her marriage and financial hardship Jenny soon managed to establish herself in her own right as a fully fledged trainer Since then horses such as Garrison Savannah and Burrough Hill Lad have etched the Pitman name deeply in the record books Jenny has trained the winners of all five major Nationals and two Cheltenham Gold Cups With Corbiere in 1983 Jenny became the first woman trainer to win the Grand National and she is still the only one to have done so In 1993 her horse Esha Ness won the National that never was Two years later the notoriously difficult horse Royal Athlete won her this prestigious race for a second time The success of Jenny s Lambourn stables has been very much a family affair Like his father Jenny s son Mark also became a successful jockey He rode many of her horses to victory and on retiring as a jockey worked as assistant trainer to his mother before setting up on his own In 1997 after an eighteen year engagement Jenny married her long term companion David Stait In the 1998 New Year s Honours list she was awarded the OBE Her fierce will to succeed her tenacity and her courage to fight for what she believes in both professionally and personally these are the foundations on which Jenny Pitman has built her life Her frank and lively autobiography reflects this spirit
