The Autobiography Of Cassandra Princess Prophetess Of Troy:

The Autobiography of Cassandra, Princess & Prophetess of Troy Ursule Molinaro, 1979 The Autobiography of Cassandra, Princess & Prophetess of Troy Ursule Molinaro, 1992 This novel tells the Homeric story of Troy from the perspective of the woman who was condemned not to be believed the perfect spokesperson for a contemporary feminist novel Written with Molinaro's typical flair for concision Cassandra is second only to the classic Positions with White Roses as Molinaro's best novel And Molinaro has been sensitive to readers whose knowledge of Greek mythology is imperfect meaning all of us by providing a witty glossary of the mortals and gods who people this dramatic story of courage and sacrifice Note This novel was originally published in hardcover in 1979 four years prior to the better known and possibly derivative one on the same theme by Christa Wolf The Character of Truth Naomi Jacobs, 1990 Can the novel survive in an age when tales of historical figures and contemporary personalities dominate the reading lists of the book buying public Naomi Jacobs addresses this question in a study of writers such as William Styron E L Doctorow and Robert Coover who challenge the dominance of nonfiction by populating their fictions with real people living and dead Jacobs explores the genesis varieties and implications of this trend in a prose as lively as that of the writers she critiques Using as a case study Robert Coover's portrait of Richard Nixon in The Public Burning Jacobs addresses the important legal and ethical questions raised by this trend and applies contemporary libel law to the fictionalization of living people such as Richard Nixon She closes her study by speculating on the future of this device and of the novel The Trojan War Diane P. Thompson, 2013-06-13 The Trojan War occurred more than 3 000 years ago Since then starting with Homer's epics people have been writing painting sculpting and creating music about this event and its participants This book starts with an overview of the Bronze Age when the Trojan War occurred and then follows a selection of the major literature about this war from Homer down through the ages and on to the Internet Each retelling of the Troy story is discussed in its historical context and includes a synopsis of the story itself The ways of telling the story change over time The main versions considered include Homer's Iliad and Odyssey a selection of Classical Greek Dramas especially Iphigenia at Aulis Virgil's Aeneid Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde Guido delle Colonne's History of the Destruction of Troy Racine's Iphigenia at Aulis Goethe's Iphigenia in Tauris Shakespeare's Troilus and Cressida Joyce's Ulysses and two feminist Troy novels Sheri Tepper's The Gate to Women's Country and Marion Zimmer Bradley's The Firebrand Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Breaking the Sequence Ellen G.
