How are food practices defined, shaped, delineated, constructed, modified, resisted and reinvented by whom and for whom? These are but a few of the questions Who Decides: Competing Narratives in Constructing Tastes Consumption and Choice explores. Part I Taste Authenticity Identity explicitly centres on the connection between food and identity construction. Part II Food Discourses focuses on how food-related language shapes perceptions that in turn construct particular behaviours that in turn demonstrate underlying value systems. Thus, as a collection, this volume explores how tastes are shaped, formed, delineated and acted upon by normalising socio-cultural processes and in some instances how those very processes are actively resisted and renegotiated.
