don't realize what our bodies need so we eat the wrong foods, skip on sleep and deprive our bodies of the movement they crave. Overwhelmed by the stresses and the pressures of our lives, we take a host of prescriptions, never realizing how they might be disrupting our body's innate ability to heal. Most insidious of all, many of us lack the personal support and the community that we need to feel fully alive. Instead, we buy into the myth that age means decline. A pioneer and internationally recognized expert in integrative and functional medicine, Dr. Frank Lipman proves that you don't have to feel this way. You have a choice. In his latest book, Dr. Lipman breaks through the common myths and misconceptions surrounding aging and dieting, and zeroes in on what you need to do in order to feel your very best. His two-week Revitalize Program brings together key information regarding insulin resistance and carbohydrate intolerance, gut and hormonal imbalances, sleep disorders, medications and supplements, and community support, and features delicious, nutritious recipes to support you along the way, handy shopping lists, and meal plans, simple exercises, meditation practices, and restorative yoga sequences. Information about powerful anti-aging and digestive supplements and vitamins, and more. Dr. Lipman also offers a lifelong Maintenance Program so that after two life-changing weeks, you can continue on your path toward ultimate health and wellness for years to come. In just two weeks, only 14 days, you can feel so much better than you ever imagined. This is a book that you'll want to share with your family, friends, and anyone else whose health you care about. Virgins Anke Bernau, 2008. Witty and thought-provoking, Virgins reveals virginity's changing cultural significance throughout its long history and its enduring power in contemporary society. Lucy Blue, where are You? Louise Harwood, 2007. Realizing she's got a job that doesn't suit her and a suitor who doesn't do the job, Lucy makes the bold decision to spend New Year's Eve in Scotland, away from family and friends. But on the way back home, she finds herself snowbound at the airport and forced to share a ride with a handsome stranger. Normally, she's not the sort of girl to pick up a stranger, much less sleep with him, but this is a moment out of time and place, and Lucy goes for it. Back in London, just as Lucy decides to put this little secret adventure behind her, she encounters something shocking. Namely, a brightly colored train station poster asking Lucy Blue, where are you. And thus begins a journey that just might make Lucy see her chance meeting as the chance of a lifetime.
