Sophistry And Twentiethcentury Art:

Sophistry and Twentieth-Century Art Haim Gordon,Rivca Gordon,2021-12-06 This book deals with a rejection of the widespread fakeries that have emerged in twentieth century art which we call by their Platonic name sophistry The book also presents brief descriptions of some of the ideas of Martin Heidegger and Nicolas Berdyaev as to what constitutes a beautiful work of art and how an authentic relation to the beauty in a work of art enhances human existence The New Werner Twentieth Century Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1906 The Sculpted Ear Ryan McCormack,2020-04-17 Sound and statuary have had a complicated relationship in Western aesthetic thought since antiquity Taking as its focus the sounding statue a type of anthropocentric statue that invites the viewer to imagine sounds the statue might make The Sculpted Ear rethinks this relationship in light of discourses on aurality emerging within the field of sound studies Ryan McCormack argues that the sounding statue is best thought of not as an aesthetic object but as an event heard by people and subsequently conceptualized into being through acts of writing and performance Constructing a history in which hearing plays an integral role in ideas about anthropocentric statuary McCormack begins with the ancient sculpture of Laocoön before moving to a discussion of the early modern automaton known as Tipu's Tiger and the statue of the Commendatore in Mozart's Don Giovanni Finally he examines statues of people from the present and the past including the singer Josephine Baker the violinist Aleksandar Nikolov and the actor Bob Newhart with each case touching on some of the issues that have historically plagued the aesthetic viability of the sounding statue McCormack convincingly demonstrates how sounding statues have served as important precursors and continuing contributors to modern ideas about the ontology of sound technologies of sound reproduction and performance practices blurring traditional divides between music sculpture and the other arts A compelling narrative that illuminates the stories of individual sculptural objects and the audiences that hear them this book will appeal to anyone interested in the connections between aurality and statues in the Western world in particular scholars and students of sound studies and sensory history Explorations in Contemporary Continental Philosophy of Religion Deane-Peter Baker,Patrick Maxwell,2003 This book is an exploration of the content and dimensions of contemporary continental philosophy of religion It is also a showcase of the work of some of the philosophers who are by their scholarship filling out the meaning of the term continental philosophy of religion Encounters in My Travels Dixie Lee Harris,2006-01-01 This book details Harris's travels throughout the globe among common people through sixty seven countries over twelve years She stayed in a harem wore a burqa and slept on a sidewalk through the biggest battle in the Algerian War Questions evoke critical reading and philosophical thought and the book includes a bibliography of suggestions for further reading Spiritual and Political Dimensions of Nonviolence and Peace David Boersema,Katy Gray Brown,2006 This book is a collection of philosophical papers that explores theoretical and practical aspects and implications of nonviolence as a means of establishing peace The papers range from spiritual and political dimensions of nonviolence to
