Soul Work Unitarian Universalist Association, 2002      The Arc of the Universe is Long Leslie Takahashi Morris, Chip Roush, Leon E. Spencer, 2009      A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further

Vasko, 2015-01-01 Theological conversations about violence have typically framed the discussion in terms of victim and perpetrator Such work while important only addresses part of the problem Comprehensive theological and pastoral responses to violence must also address the role of collective passivity in the face of human denigration Given the pervasiveness of inaction whether in the form of denial willful ignorance or silent complicity a theological reflection on violence that holds bystanders accountable especially those who occupy social sites of privilege is long overdue In Beyond Apathy Elisabeth T Vasko utilizes resources within the Christian tradition to examine the theological significance of bystander participation in patterns of violence and violation within contemporary Western culture giving particular attention to the social issues of bullying white racism and sexual violence In doing so she constructs a theology of redeeming grace for bystanders to violence that foregrounds the significance of social action in bringing about God s basileia      Historical
