Catastrophe at Spithead Hilary L. Rubinstein, 2020-01-15 This fascinating historical inquiry sheds new light on the mysterious sinking of an 18th century warship and its lingering effect on British naval culture. On August 29th 1782 the mighty flagship HMS Royal George suddenly capsized while anchored in the calm familiar waters of Spithead on the English Channel. In one of the most sensational and perplexing incidents in naval history Rear Admiral Richard Kempenfelt an outstanding veteran officer drowned along with more than 800 crew and many civilian visitors. Catastrophe at Spithead is the first comprehensive account of the sinking drawn from a variety of archival sources including reports by survivors and eyewitnesses. Hilary L. Rubinstein examines the mysterious cause and tragic cost of the disaster as well as its lingering aftereffects including its treatment in literature. As well as describing the sinking Rubenstein uncovers new information on the life and career of Rear Admiral Kempenfelt ranging from his familial relation to the great Admiral Rodney to accounts of his whereabouts when the ship sank. These call into question the scenario in William Cowper's famous poem On the Sinking of the Royal George which depicts Kempenfelt writing in his cabin when she foundered.

Religion and Conflict in Medieval and Early Modern Worlds Natasha Hodgson, Amy Fuller, John McCallum, Nicholas Morton, 2020-12-27 This volume seeks to increase understanding of the origins, ideology, implementation, impact and historiography of religion and conflict in the medieval and early modern periods. The chapters examine ideas about religion and conflict in the context of text and identity, church and state, civic environments, marriage, the parish, heresy, gender, dialogues, war and finance, and Holy War. The volume covers a wide chronological period and the contributors investigate relationships between religion and conflict from the seventh to eighteenth centuries ranging from Byzantium to post conquest Mexico Religious expressions of conflict at a localised level are explored including the use of language in legal and clerical contexts to influence social behaviours and the use of religion to legitimise the spiritual value of violence rationalising the enforcement of social rules The collection also examines spatial expressions of religious conflict both within urban environments and through travel and pilgrimage With both written and visual sources being explored this volume is the ideal resource for upper level undergraduates postgraduates and researchers of religion and military political social legal cultural or intellectual conflict in medieval and early modern worlds Lethal Evidence Jonathan G.
